REPORT

—OF—

CHIEF OF POLICE.

HEADQUARTERS POLICE DEPARTMENT,

TOLEDO, OHIO, January 1, 1883. }

To the Honorable Board of Police Commissioners :

GENTLEMEN :—I have the honor to submit herewith my report of the work and transactions of the Police Force of the City of Toledo for the year ending December 31st, 1882.

Under the appointment from you made on the 4th day of May, 1882, I took command of the Police Department on the 5th day of the same month, and I have endeavored, by strict discipline, to secure prompt obedience of orders, faithful performance of duty, and the enforcement of the ordinances of the City, the laws of the State and United States. My highest aim has been to enforce law and order, to secure to every citizen protection in the exercise of all lawful rights, to suppress lawlessness, prevent crime and punish criminals. How well I have succeeded in my purpose, I leave to you and the citizens of Toledo to determine.

The Police Force of the City, as at present organized, consists of 50 Patrolmen, 4 Sergeants, 3 Detectives, 1 Lieutenant, 1 Captain and Acting Superintendent, making a total of 59 men. One Patrolman is detailed for duty as Court Officer, 15 are on day duty, leaving 34 for night service, when all the men report for duty. One Patrolman (Patrick McPartland) has been disabled by a pistol shot for seven months, and I regret to say, will probably not be fit for duty for a long time, if ever again. The average number of men for duty does not exceed 47.

A policeman making an arrest necessarily leaves his beat unprotected while taking his prisoner to the Station House. Many of the beats of patrolmen are left open while they attend the sessions of the Police Court, or go to their meals. The patrolmen are often of necessity so far apart on account of the extent of their beats, that they are unable to hear the call whistles of each other. These difficulties would, to a great extent, be obviated, by the introduction and use of a patrol wagon.

There have been no robberies of banks, moneyed institutions, or large burglaries in Toledo during the past year, and the City has been more free from thieves and burglars than any other place of its population in the country. This, I believe, is mainly attributable to my order to arrest and lock up every known criminal found in the City.

The aggregate number of arrests in City and State cases during the year (4,493) is the largest ever made in any year since the organization of the Police Force, exceeding the number made during the previous year 393.

The total amount of fines assessed for the year in City and State cases was $31,520.85, against $30,845.22 assessed during the year 1881.

Total amount collected during the past year, $14,143.82. Amount collected the year previous, $10,430.47.

The number of persons arrested for keeping, residing in and visiting houses of ill-fame, during the year, aggregate 780, as against 278, arrested for the same offences during the year previous.

The number arrested for disturbance, drunkenness, and drunk and disorderly during the past two years, are nearly the same in number for each year, being 1,613 for the year 1881, and 1,693 in 1882.

I have made the foregoing comparisons, for the purpose of showing that the best efforts of the police were made to suppress and punish the violations of law which lead directly to the commission of higher crimes and are the cause of the greatest annoyance to decent and orderly citizens. I regard the brutal wretches who associate themselves with prostitutes and live off their earnings, as the vilest characters to be found in any community, and against all such despicable creatures, I have waged a relentless war. A large number have been arrested, convicted and sent to the stone yard, and several of the worst characters among them have been driven out of the City.

I can not too strongly recommend to you the urgent necessity for and the great benefit and economy of a patrol wagon, the introduction of which would relieve the imperative demand for an increase in the Police Force, unless a wagon is furnished. I respectfully call your attention, and through you the attention of our Common Council, to the letters of the Chiefs of Police of the cities of Chicago and Cincinnati, on the subject of patrol wagons, which letters, by direction of your honorable body, have been published.

The "social evil," so-called, never can be extirpated, but I have labored to impose upon it such restraint as will prevent open and shameless exhibitions, which are repulsive to people who have a proper sense of decency, and I feel justified in stating that the course pursued by the Police under my orders has stopped prostitutes from advertising themselves in an offensive manner, and deterred many of our young men from squandering money in buying wines in houses of ill-fame.

Fifteen of the vilest dens in the city, into which men were decoyed by prostitutes, rendered helpless with liquor, and robbed of their money and other valuables, have been entirely broken up during the past year. A number of other similar dens, of less notoriety, have been prosecuted and their proprietors punished, but have not yet been suppressed. The police, as President Lincoln said about prosecuting the war, will "keep pegging away" at them until they are extirpated.

The police force is in an excellent state of efficiency, and has performed labor and duties which can only be realized and appreciated by those who know the responsibilities which devolve upon a patrolman in preserving the peace, protecting property and enforcing the laws and ordinances. It requires good judgment and experience to discriminate between the good and the bad and know just when to interfere in the strict discharge of duty.

I have endeavored to make the men under my command see and feel the responsibility of their positions, to impress them with their duty, to be polite, but firm; to avoid personal controversy and at all times to be ready and willing to respond to every demand of duty. I have striven to elevate the standard of usefulness, by weeding out of the force the inefficient and negligent men who were on it, and believe I have succeeded in bringing it to a standard of excellence, not more than equaled by any police force of its size in the country.

I respectfully renew the recommendation of my predecessor for the establishment of a "rogues gallery," as a cheap and effective means of aiding in the detection of criminals—the photographs to consist of all persons arrested who are known to live by criminal practices. There is scarcely a city of any importance in the whole country without a "rogues gallery."

The report of the Clerk, containing a review of the finances of the Board, with statistics in tabulated form, will be submitted to you with this report, and I respectfully invite your attention to the valuable information it contains.

In closing my report, I deem it just and proper for me to express my sense of obligations to the force under my command, as well as my grateful feelings to the members of your Honorable Board, to whom I am deeply indebted for their support and indulgence.

Very truly yours,

JAMES B. STEEDMAN,

Chief of Police.

FINANCE.

Levy for 1882, $33,761.54; amount in fund December 31, 1881, $7,669.77; total to credit of fund, $41,431.31. Disbursements, payrolls of the Police from December 1, 1881, to December 1, 1882, amounted to $36,431.16; incidental expenses of the Chief, buttons, badges, stationery, and furniture amounted to $446.82; total disbursements, $36,877.98; balance to credit of fund December 31, 1882, $4,553.33. Sanitary fund collected of taxes, 1882, $5,804.75; refunded by Washington township, $100.00; aggregate receipts, $5,904.75; amount overdrawn January 1, 1882, $212.98; amount to credit of fund January 1, 1882, $5,691.77; aggregate disbursements, $4,855.16; balance in fund December 31, 1882, $836.61. Police Court assessments in city cases, $21,772.83; collection, $11,070.62; witness fees paid, $931.31, paid into Pension fund, $254.20; amount deposited with City Treasurer, $9,885.29; assessments in State cases, $9,748.02; collected in State cases, $3,073.80; paid into Pension fund, $78.96; amount deposited, $2,994.84. During the year your Board found it necessary for the protection of the residence portions of the city to increase the Police Force from 43 to 50 Patrolmen, the full quota allowed by law, according to the decennial census, and also to increase the salary of Patrolmen five dollars per month. It will, therefore, be necessary that your Board ask the Common Council for a larger appropriation for the ensuing year, as the salary of the Department will amount to $42,000.00, not including the incidentals.

THE FORCE.

The force at present consists of 50 patrolmen, 3 detectives, 4 sergeants, 1 lieutenant and 1 captain and acting superintendent. The duties of the members of the force are clearly and fully laid down in the rules and regulations governing the force, a printed copy of which is furnished to each one, and they are required to study the same so that they may fully understand as to what they are required to do and prohibited from doing. The name, rank, date of appointment, and salary of each member of the force is furnished in this report.

HEALTH AND DISCIPLINE.

The health of the force for the past year has been fair; of the time lost by sickness more than one-half was due to injuries received while making arrests, the most serious of which was that of Officer Patrick McPartland, who, while in the faithful discharge of his duty, was shot and seriously wounded in the knee joint, by a desperado whom he was pursuing to arrest. He has been disabled for the past seven months, and is still unable to do duty. But one death occurred during the year, that of Sergeant Henry Hugh, who died on the 15th day of October, after a long and painful suffering. By the death of Sergeant Hugh the force lose one of its most brave and efficient officers. Strict regard is given to the discipline of the force, and the men have generally complied with the regulations prescribed by the Board and the orders issued by the Chief. All complaints made to the board have been promptly inquired into, and disposed of in such a manner as the nature of them seemed to require.

GENERAL STATISTICS.
