History of the city of Toledo and Lucas County,
v. 1 #37302454

The prompt and effective response of this section to the call for volunteers to suppress the Rebellion in the field, is shown in another portion of this volume. Here will be proper a brief record of the political support given to the government in the same connection.

The first movement in that direction after the breaking out of the War, consisted in the calling of a "Union County Convention," by about 100 citizens of all former party affiliations. The call was as follows:

The undersigned, believing that in the present struggle for the preservation of the Government and of the Union, men of all parties ought to unite for a vigorous and successful prosecution of the War for that purpose, respectfully invite all voters of Lucas County, who are willing to place their country's need above party fealty, and adopt for their principle of union—"The Constitution and the Union, now and forever, one and inseparable," and "No Compromise with traitors in arms against the Government"—to meet by their delegates in County Convention, at College Hall (formerly the Wigwam), in Toledo, August 31, 1861, for the purpose of nominating a County ticket, to be supported by those of like sentiment at the State and County elections next fall, and also to choose delegates to the State and District Conventions to be held for like purpose.

Under this call, a Convention was held, of which Colonel James B. Steedman was the President, and P. T. Clark and Noe Nelson Secretaries. The following were the delegates present:

From Toledo: 1st Ward—Wm. Baker, Milton Barrett, F. A. Jones, Jas. L. Smith, Ed. Connolly, A. B. Brownlee, Valentine Wall, E. S. Platt. 2d Ward—Chas. Pratt, L. H. Pike, Harry Chase, Wm. H. Harris, Dr. F. J. Klauser, Ed. C. Smith, Mavor Brigham, Thos. Dunlap, T. Sheldon, M. D. Carrington. 3d Ward—J. B. Steedman, Dennis Coghlin, Louis Wachenheimer, Robert Cummings, Declan Allen, Paul Jones, S. M. Young, Peter Lenk, J. Austin Scott, Darwin E. Gardner. 4th Ward—W. C. Hoffman, Wm. Kraus, Henry Breed, Sam. Wagner, Guido Marx, Horace Thacher, W. Hannin, Maurice Conlisk, J. McGettigin, H. S. Commager. 5th Ward—M. B. Doyle, Michael Hayden, W. J. Freatenborough, Warren Russell, Thos. B. Smith, Martin Leezen. 6th Ward—Wm. Mack, Daniel A. Brown. Springfield—H. Dunn, Perry Wood. Richfield—Pliny Lathrop, W. W. Wilson, John Titus, M. Bennett. Waterville—L. L. Morehouse, A. J. Eldridge, Thos. Shoemaker, J. E. Hall, John Rakestraw, Elijah Dodd. Monclova—A. O. Gunn, C. Van Fleet. Swanton—John G. Wales, Thos. Howlett. Adams—Harvey Kellogg, Patrick Carey. Spencer—Wm. Taylor, Wm. R. Cole. Waynesfield—E. Hunter, Wm. Limbrick. Maumee City: 1st Ward—P. C. Holt, James Howes, Thos. Dale, F. Quiggle. 2d Ward—N. Nelson, H. Shields. 3d Ward—Curtis Perry, Louis Dewey. Providence—Wm. Atkinson, Thos. Quigley. Washington—Henry Bennett, B. F. Mallett, A. C. Harris, Ed. Upton. Manhattan—Jona. Wynn, Jas. Cole. Sylvania—Benj. Joy, John U. Pease, H. D. Warren, R. C. Thompson, O. Holloway, P. T. Clark. Oregon—Chas. A. Crane, R. V. Boice, Geo. D. Treat, David Youngs.

A Union District Convention, called on the same basis, nominated Dr. C. M. Godfrey of Putnam County, for Senator. A Union Judicial Convention nominated Judge S. F. Taylor for re-election as Judge of the Common Pleas Court, and John L. Greene, of Sandusky County, for a vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge S. T. Worcester, elected to Congress in 1860. There was no opposition to these candidates.

A Democratic State ticket was nominated.

The result of the election in Lucas County was as follows:

Governor—David Tod, 1,652; Hugh J. Jewett, 232. Judges of Common Pleas—S. F. Taylor (full term), 1,782; John L. Greene (vacancy), 1,797. Senator—C. M. Godfrey, 1,778. Representative—James Myers, 1,770. Auditor—Alex. Reed, 1,777. Treasurer—V. Braun, 1,761. Sheriff—N. M. Landis, 1,783. Commissioner—Wm. Taylor, 1,775. Prosecuting Attorney—R. C. Lemmon, 1,781. Infirmary Director—C. A. Crane, 1,789.

The very light vote cast was due to the lack of opposition. The only opposition to the Judicial candidates was in Ottawa County, where 115 votes were cast for Wm. Annesly, of that County, and for John Whitbeck, of Huron County. The vote of the State gave David Tod (Union) 55,009 majority over H. J. Jewett (Democrat).

One of the most memorable of local political campaigns in Northwestern Ohio, was that in the Fifth Congressional District, in 1862. It was in the second year of the Rebellion, and a chief cause of special interest then was a difference in sentiment in regard to the War policy of the Government in respect to Slavery. One view in this regard was that the abolition of Slavery should be accepted as an end to be sought in the prosecution of the War, and at once be so declared by the President. On the other hand, it was held that the paramount and only proper aim should be to defend the Government from overthrow by rebellion, and maintain the Union in its integrity, leaving Slavery, with all other special interests, to take its chances in the exigencies and results of the War, which policy, from the first, had been avowed and pursued by the Government. The former of these views was supported by Hon. James M. Ashley, then the Representative of the District in Congress, who, in a series of letters to the Toledo Blade, in 1861, had urged such policy, his main reason therefor being that as Slavery had been the chief cause and was then the main support of the War on the part of the Confederates, it should at once be removed.

The result of such disagreement was the nomination of Mr. Ashley for re-election by the supporters of the more radical Anti-Slavery policy, and that of Morrison R. Waite by a Convention of friends of the opposing policy. The principal popular demonstration of the campaign was a meeting of the supporters of

The Union party were at one time somewhat embarrassed by a movement on the part of a few disaffected advocates of a policy more radical as to Slavery than was that then pursued. The latter held a Convention looking to separate action in support of their views; but this plan was never carried into execution, and failed of results.

A Lincoln and Johnson Club was formed in Toledo with the following officers:

President—Horace S. Walbridge. Vice-Presidents—James C. Hall, Col. C. B. Phillips, Paul Jones, Henry Breed, W. T. Walker, W. W. Griffith, Andrew Stephan, R. H. Bell, Matthew Brown, Alonzo Rogers, James H. Campbell, James Raymer, V. H. Ketcham, Stillman Brown, C. D. Woodruff, Alex. Reed, Maj. E. B. Hall, Wm. Kraus. Recording Secretaries—John H. Doyle, Geo. R. Haynes. Corresponding Secretary—Cyrus P. Leland. Executive Committee—Chas. Pratt, John T. Newton, Ernst Kibbe, T. B. Casey, V. Braun, N. M. Howard, C. A. King.

A similar club was formed in East Toledo, with the following officers:

President—Alonzo Rogers. Vice-Presidents—A. W. Maddocks, John Quinn, Albert Royes, J. C. Messer, Alphonso Stratton, Thomas Wynn. Secretary—James Raymer. Treasurer—John Thorp.

In 1864, Mr. Ashley was again a candidate, his only opponent Colonel A. V. Rice, of Putnam County, the Democratic candidate. The latter was at the time Colonel of the 57th Ohio Infantry, and being severely wounded at both Chickamauga, in 1863, and at Kenesaw Mountain, in 1864, was at the time of the election at home awaiting recovery after the amputation of a leg. While there was no organized opposition to Mr. Ashley among the Republicans, large numbers of them either withheld from him their votes or cast them for Colonel Rice. The vote in Lucas County was as follows:

Judge of Supreme Court—Luther Day, 2,750; P. Van Trump, 1,903. Judge of Common Pleas—John Fitch, 2,764; Thos. P. Finefrock, 1,887. Commissioner—Wm. Taylor, 2,736; James C. Wales, 1,911. Infirmary Director—C. A. Crane, 2,740; Valentine Wall, 1,912.

Congress—J. M. Ashley, 2,282; A. V. Rice, 2,325. The Home vote on Congress gave Rice 930 majority in the District, with a Union majority on the State ticket of 802. This was overcome by Ashley's majority of 1,634 in the Soldiers' vote, giving him a net majority of 704 in the District.

The vote of the State stood; Union—Home vote, 204,492; Soldiers' vote, 33,431—total, 237,927. Democratic—Home vote, 179,471; Soldiers' vote, 4,614—total, 183,985. Union majority, 53,942. The State vote on President stood: Lincoln—Home vote, 224,008; Soldiers, 41,146—total, 265,154. McClellan—Home, 198,811; Soldiers, 9,757—total, 208,568. Lincoln's majority, 59,586.

The following was the vote in the County in 1865:

Governor—J. D. Cox, 2,942; Geo. W. Morgan, 1,712. State Senators—James C. Hall, 3,008; Parlee

Carlin, 2,990; Cloys B. Wilson, 1,697; Henry D. Taylor, 1,696. Representative—John A. Chase, 2,779; John B. Carson, 1,892. Prosecuting Attorney—Geo. R. Haynes, 2,974; Reuben C. Lemmon, 1,700. Sheriff—Henry D. Kingsbury, 3,043; Florence J. Sullivan, 1,643. Auditor—James L. Smith, 2,965; C. B. Van Fleet, 1,707. Treasurer—Ernst Greiner, 2,994; S. W. Freeman, 1,671. Recorder—Anson Trowbridge, 1,941; Josiah W. White, 2,731. Commissioner—Geo. W. Reynolds, 2,984; Jacob Fancher, 1,710. Surveyor—E. W. Lenderson, 2,987; scattering, 3. Infirmary Director—Benj. Mallett, 2,969; James C. Wales, 1,700. Coroner—Marcus Schnetzler, 2,962; C. Cochran, 1,650. (The first names are of Republicans, and the second of Democrats.) The vote of the State on Governor, stood: J. D. Cox, 2,236,333; G. W. Morgan, 1,933,697.

The Union County Convention for 1866 was held August 8th, of which L. L. Morehouse, of Waterville, was President, and E. W. Lenderson, Secretary.

A Convention of Soldiers in Lucas County was held in Toledo, September 18, 1866, for the purpose of organization as "Boys in Blue," with reference to political action in support of particular measures in the restoration of the Government from the condition of War. The officers were as follows:

President—General H. D. Kingsbury; Vice-Presidents—J. Kent Hamilton, Edward Stephan, Cecil A. Hall, John Kountz, J. W. Cummings, John J. Baird, Sergeant McDonald, Leroy E. Clark, A. B. Coffin, James W. McCabe, Captain W. D. Moore, Lieutenant Harrison Wood, Colonel H. N. Howland, H. W. Hendrickson, Wm. Leybourne, Samuel Jacobs, Chas. Dennis, Elias Trapp, Captain Geo. W. Norton. Secretaries—Otho Klemm, Chas. H. Jones. Treasurer—Ernst Greiner. Executive Committee—General Louis von Blessingh, Colonel C. W. Hill, Captain J. W. White, Captain Chas. Kent, Lieutenant Jas. Harris, John L. Wiltse, Lieutenant W. H. Perigo, George S. Griffin, Lieutenant W. H. H. Smith, Captain H. G. Neubert.

Mr. Ashley was again a candidate, his opponent being General Henry S. Commager, Democratic nominee. As in the case of Colonel Rice, General C. received the support of a large number of Union men, though Mr. Ashley was again elected, having a majority of 1,917 in the District.

The following was the result of the October election, in 1866 (first named being Republicans, and second named Democrats):

Secretary of State—W. H. Smith, 4,193; B. F. LeFever, 2,624. Congress—J. M. Ashley, 3,937; H. S. Commager, 2,851. County Clerk—Victor Keen, 4,202; P. Hanlon, 2,608. Probate Judge—F. A. Jones, 4,182; C. I. Scott, 2,625. Commissioner—Paul Jones, 4,184; W. J. Finlay, 2,623. Infirmary Director—John Weible, 4,167; Louis Kaiser, 2,637.

Toledo was advanced to the grade of City of the First Class, in 1867, and the first election

4,152; W. H. Ingraham, 3,024. Coroner—G. A. Collamore, 4,104; G. W. Bowen, 3,080. Surveyor—J. L. Stratton, 4,151; — Snyder, 2,991. (Republicans, first named; Democrats, second.)

The National political canvass of 1872 was peculiar in the fact that Horace Greeley (always theretofore a leading Republican, as well as editor of the New York Tribune) was the Presidential candidate of both the Democratic party and of what were known as "Liberal Republicans." The selection of that gentleman was made upon the belief that his personal record and political character would command Republican votes sufficient to secure his election over General Grant, the Republican nominee for re-election. This state of things invested the campaign with some peculiar features, but the result was a disappointment to those who relied upon Mr. Greeley's strength to secure his election.

The Republicans of Lucas County nominated their ticket at a Convention held July 21st, of which Charles Dodge was President, and Chas. H. Eddy Secretary. The Republican Central Committee consisted of Geo. E. Welles, D. R. Locke, E. V. McMaken and L. S. Barnes.

The result of the October election was as follows:

Secretary of State—Wikoff,* 4,701; Willey,† 3,997. Congress—I. R. Sherwood,* 4,446; F. H. Hurd,† 4,245. Probate Judge—D. R. Austin,* 4,439; H. E. Howe,† 4,101. Auditor—E. W. Lenderson,* 4,896; — Allen,† 3,749. Clerk—M. J. Enright,* 4,598; — Shaeffer,† 4,035. Commissioner—J. S. Norton,* 4,742; Henry Breed,† 3,813. Infirmary Director—Louis Kaiser,* 5,104; Chas. Bunch,† 2,805. (* Republicans. † Democrats.) The Prohibition vote was 29.

The vote in the Congressional District stood:

Secretary of State—Wikoff,* 13,955; Willey,† 12,099. Wikoff's majority, 1,856. Congressman—Sherwood,* 13,471; Hurd,† 12,406. Sherwood's majority, 1,065.

The vote in the County for President stood as follows:

Grant, 5,108; Greeley, 2,833. Majority for Grant, 2,275.

The vote of the State was as follows:

Grant, 281,852; Greeley, 244,321; Black (Temperance), 2,106; O'Connor (Straight out Democrat), 1,103.

The main special incident of the State campaign of 1873, consisted of the organization of what was known as the "People's" or "Liberal Party," made up chiefly of dissatisfied members of the Democratic party, prominent among whom were Wm. S. Groesbeck, General Thomas Ewing, formerly Representatives, and

Geo. E. Pugh, formerly a Senator in Congress. The fundamental basis of the movement was the assumption that "both the Republican and the Democratic parties had outlived the issues in which they had their origin, and had outlived their usefulness, and a new organization was demanded in the interest of the public welfare." The movement had special reference to the interests of labor in its contest with capital. The State ticket of this party was as follows: Governor—Isaac C. Collins,* of Hamilton County; Lieutenant-Governor—A. Saunders Piatt,† of Logan; Attorney-General—S. Meyers,† of Stark; Judge of Supreme Court—Philemon B. Ewing,* of Fairfield; Auditor—D. W. C. Landen,† of Brown; Board of Public Works—James McBeth,* of Allen; Treasurer—Jona. Harshman,* of Montgomery; Comptroller of the Treasury—C. L. P. Butler,† of Franklin. (* Democrats. † "Liberals" or former Republicans.)

The Republican Convention for the nomination of a County ticket was held August 12, 1873, with John Sinclair as President and Dr. Frank P. Wilson as Secretary.

The Democratic County Convention was held August 21st, of which E. D. Potter, Sr., was the President, and Chas. D. Sutphen and Chas. N. Lewis Secretaries.

The two parties in the State were represented by the following tickets (the first named being Republicans and the second Democrats):

Governor—E. F. Noyes and Wm. Allen; State Senators—John T. Newton, W. H. Beckham, E. D. Potter and T. J. Tressler; Representatives—R. C. Thompson, Guido Marx, E. S. Dodd, Aaron Van Wormer; Treasurer—John S. Kountz, Robert Cummings; Sheriff—Albert Moore and E. Welles; Prosecuting Attorney—J. D. Ford and R. C. Lemmon; Commissioner—Lucas Raab and Perry Wood; Coroner—G. A. Collamore and J. G. Nolen; Infirmary Director—C. A. Crane and C. Lathrop.

With the exception of Treasurer, the Republican candidates for County offices and Representatives were elected. The Democrats elected their candidates for Senators, and also for Governor. The vote in the County for J. C. Collins, "People's" or "Liberal" candidate for Governor, was 57; and that for G. T. Stewart (Prohibition), 114.

The vote of the State was as follows; For Governor—Noyes, 213,707; Allen, 214,525; Collins, 9,971; Stewart, 10,081. Allen's plurality, 808.

The Republicans nominated their County ticket at a Convention held August 4, 1874, with Chas. W. Hill for President; Robert McCune for Secretary; and John P. Holloway for Assistant Secretary. Delegates to the State and Congressional Conventions were appointed. The main interest centered in the choice of the latter, the question being the re-nomination of behalf, on the ground of the illegality of Dr. Wilkins's vote in Henry County, on account of the tickets having been unlawfully made distinguishable by the color of the paper on which they were printed; but Mr. Walbridge, accepting such ballots as expressing the will of the voters casting them, declined to make a contest.

The vote of the State for Governor stood: Foster,* 336,261; T. Ewing, 319,132; A. S. Piatt (Gr.), 9,129; G. T. Stewart (Pro.) 4,145.

The Republican Convention for the nomination of a County ticket was held July 24, 1880, with Rev. Robert McCune as President and W. R. Leflet, E. L. Jones and J. Vordtriede as Secretaries. The ticket appears in the vote of the County given elsewhere. A notable incident of the occasion was the nomination of a candidate for Recorder on a vote of 85½ to 85¼.

The Republican Congressional Convention was held July 29th, with W. T. Walker, of Lucas, as President, and J. H. McElroy as Secretary. James M. Ritchie, of Toledo, was nominated for Congress. The vote on the first ballot stood: J. M. Ritchie, 42.54; J. K. Hamilton, 46.48; Wm. Sheffield, 22; L. S. Baumgardner, 18.39; J. H. Brigham, 39.15. Sixth ballot—Ritchie, 118; Hamilton, 52; Brigham, 1.

The Greenback District Convention met at Toledo August 7th, with J. W. Northrop as President and W. W. Cook as Secretary. B. F. Miller, of Lucas, was nominated for Congress, upon the following vote: Miller, 66; Daniel Fink, of Fulton County, 31; James M. Ashley, 1.

The Democratic Convention was held August 10th, of which J. M. Hueston was President, and E. S. Dodd and J. W. Erwin Secretaries. C. F. Curtis, G. W. Davis, T. W. Childs, Ed. Malone, L. C. Gibbs, C. H. Coy, D. O. Brown, John Cummings and H. P. Platt were appointed as Central Committee.

Frank H. Hurd was nominated for re-election August 12th, by the Democratic Congressional Convention held at Napoleon.

The Greenback or National County Convention was held July 24, 1880, of which Ira E. Lee was President and J. H. McGuire Secretary. Henry Mooers, Herman Baumbach, A. B. Conant, E. B. Hall, Wm. Blystone, Wm. Taylor, B. F. Miller, Harvey Kellogg, W. B. Warren and P. J. Mettler were appointed delegates to a State Convention, and Herman Baumbach, Frank Blakely, H. C. Ellis, B. F. Miller, Jacob Romeis, J. E. Wilcox and Wesley Hicks as a County Committee. This party nominated its County ticket August 28th, when Harvey Kellogg was President of the Convention, and Gilbert Canneff Secretary.

During the political campaign of 1880 an organization was formed of Republicans of Toledo advanced in life, who took the name of "Silver Gray Republican Club," with the following officers:

President—John R. Osborn. Vice-Presidents—Horace S. Walbridge, Mavor Brigham, Dr. J. A. Tenney, Wm. Breed, Chauncy Woodruff, Col. Horace N. Howland, Fitch Dewey and David E. Merrill. Secretary—Wm. T. Walker. Executive Committee—L. S. Baumgardner, Dr. S. S. Thorne, Welcome O. Parker, John J. Barker, Milton Taylor. Captain—Col. John Faskin.

The names of 164 voters in the County were enrolled as members, with their ages respectively as follows:

ORGANIZATIONS.

BOARD No. 2.

The next record found, is that of "a large meeting of Forwarders Commission Men and Dealers," April 23, 1851, when the By-Laws of 1849" were adopted, and the following officers chosen: President, Matthew Brown, Jr.; Vice President, Major A. J. Field; Secretary and Treasurer, Harrison H. Dodd; Referees, Geo. Pendleton, Edward Haskell and Truman H. Hoag. It was then resolved, that "the daily meetings of the Board be in the front part of the Toledo Insurance Company's Office, Poag's Block, at 9 o'clock A. M." The following is a list of members of the Board in June, 1851:

E. Haskell & Co., J. A. Severance, W. W. Howe, Brown & King, Field & King, Hoag, Strong & Co., E. S. Johnson, Smith & Hunt, Read & Thompson, Thos. Watkins, Jr., Hollister & Colton, Simeon Fitch, Jr., Chas. O'Hara, Brown & Dodd, P. Smyth (Secretary Toledo Insurance Co.), Alonzo Godard, Samuel R. & Alex. Reed, Brownlee, Pendleton & Co., Hez. L. Hosmer, Scott & Comstock, Isaac Fellows, Wm. G. Powers, P. Bundy, May & Hathaway.

The organization of 1851 seems to have expired with that year, and under date of February 14, 1852, record is made as follows:

At sundry meetings of the men engaged in the Forwarding and Commission business in this City, held in the office of the Toledo Insurance Company, it was resolved that "an Association be formed in the most equitable manner possible, the objects of which should be to obtain fair remunerative prices for the transacting of the Forwarding and Commission Business; to compel all Business coming to this Port to pay to the General Interest a Commission; and do such other things as might be for the best interest of all concerned.

To secure these ends, a Constitution and By-Laws were adopted which "endeavored to state all the details connected with such an arrangement." A division of 50 per cent. of the whole proceeds of the business, was required; and a scale of prices which should govern all the Clerk of the Board; and shall promptly pay over to him at the times specified, 50 per cent. of its entire receipts for Storage, Forwarding and Commission (except on Grain Storage), according to the rates and prices established by this Board. The amounts collected as above, shall, under the direction of the Board of Supervision, on the first Tuesday of each month, be divided among the members of this Board, according to the ratio adopted in the following article, first deducting the necessary expenses of the Association; then from each House, the sum of $100 for the first month, and $50 for each month thereafter, until such amount shall reach $200 for each House belonging to the Association; which amount shall be a Reserve Fund, and shall be retained by the Board until the close of the season of navigation, as security against the violation of the rules of this Association. Upon proof being made to the satisfaction of two-thirds of the members of this Board, that any member has violated the rules thereof, after the accused shall have had a fair opportunity to establish his defense, his portion of the Reserve Fund shall be forfeited to the use and benefit of the remaining members of the Board.

The number of shares to constitute a basis for the division of the commissions paid into the common fund, was fixed at 134. Of these, 69 were then apportioned as follows:

Scott & Spencer, 11; Brown & King, 11; Smith & Hunt, 10; Hollister & Colton, 8; Field & King, 11; S. R. & A. Reed, 6; A. Gedard, 8; Brownlee, Pendleton & Co., 8; E. Haskell & Co., 10; Scott & Comstock, 7; Hoag, Strong & Co., 10; Brown & Deed, 10; Thos. Watkins, 11; May & Hathaway, 7; Read & Thompson, 6.

The following rates, among others, were adopted for receiving and shipping property, including storage, to wit:

Down Freights—Pork and Beef, per ton, 40 cents; Flour, per bbl., 4c; Merchandize from Cincinnati, per 100, 5c; Wool and Furniture, per 100, 10c; Sugar, Molasses and other heavy freights from Cincinnati, per ton, 50c; Corn and Wheat, per bu., 10c; Commission for receiving and shipping, buying and selling Grain, per bu., 1/2c; Flour (buying and selling, exclusive of storage), 3c; Sales of Salt afloat, 2c. Up Freights—Merchandize to Dayton and points below, per 100, 5 cents; Merchandize, etc., to Wabash and other points, per 100, 8c; heavy castings, 5c; Town goods, per 100, 5c; Coal, receiving and shipping, per ton, 50c; Cider and Beer, per bbl., 10c; Salt, per bbl., 4c; Lumber, per M. 50c.

Among the "regulations" adopted by the Board, were the following:

It shall be the duty of the members of this Board, individually and collectively, to "war" with any person or persons who shall endeavor by any unfair means to interfere with any member in his business, or shall seek by ridicule or otherwise to abuse the Referees, Carlos Colton, A. J. Field, Thos. Watkins, Jr.

The latest record of this Board bears date of August 18, 1852.

TOLEDO BOARD OF TRADE, No. 3.

There seems to have been no organization of this class in Toledo from 1852 to 1861, when the third Board of Trade was established, with the following officers:

The business of this house occupies a good business room, 25x60 feet in size, which by almost daily additions to stock, is kept fully supplied with fresh groceries and provisions, embracing country produce, best canned goods, foreign and domestic fruits and nuts, confectioneries, wood and willow ware, directly retailed to the trade, choice tobacco and cigars, notions, etc.; with telephonic connection with all parts of the city; while special care is taken in the prompt delivery of all purchases to families in any part of the city. The proprietor of this house Mr. S. R. Wilcox, is a native of New York State and was born in Jefferson County in 1847. He came to this city in January, 1871, and after being variously associated with business interests, started his present enterprise in 1876, then located at 139 Lagrange St., from which he removed to his present quarters April 1, 1880. The gradually increasing trade enjoyed by this house is attributable both to the uniform excellent quality of goods carried in stock and the thoroughly efficient business policy which characterizes its operations.

N. M. MERICKAL,

BLACKSMITH AND WAGON MAKER, COR.
CHERRY AND UTICA STS.

Among the most important industries engaging the mechanical ingenuity of our progressive communities is that of blacksmithing and wagon work operations. In the city of Toledo which is rapidly increasing in population and wealth, no enterprise is more adapted to the progressive industries both of country and city, thus making the business an important factor in the general resources. The trade enjoyed by Mr. N. Merickal in this branch of industry and which forms the subject of this article, embraces both a city and country patronage. Mr. Merickal was born in France in the year 1840 and arrived in the United States in 1846. In the year 1859 he established his present business on the corner of St. Clair and Monroe Sts., under favorable circumstances, and in 1870 he removed to his present location. The blacksmithing and horse shoeing shop occupies 60x25 feet. In the blacksmith shop two fires are run and experienced workmen employed. All descriptions of blacksmith work is turned out promptly and in a perfectly workmanlike manner while horse shoeing is a specialty in this department and is given the most careful and particular attention, and in this department he has no superior in this city, while the wagon work department in repairing and new work promptly executed from the best seasoned material, good workmanship and durable finish, is not surpassed in this or any city. Mr. Merickal is an industrious, persevering and reliable business man as well as a practical mechanic, and has built up a very extensive and lucrative city and country trade. He also owns two lots, 80x35 feet, on Cherry St., a house and lot on Utica St., and a fine residence and two lots on Walnut St. The success which has attended the operations of Mr. Merickal is the result of an earnest effort to give the highest standard of workmanship at the lowest living rates.

EZRA A. COZENS,

RAGS, COPPER, IRON, ETC., NO. 184 ERIE STREET.

The business of collecting, operating and shipping to their various points of destination rags, ropes, copper scrap iron, brass and other commodities of similar nature, to be reproduced in other and more useful and attractive forms, is one which in the aggregate assumes immense proportions in the various cities of the Union. Mr. Ezra A. Cozens, whose headquarters are located at No. 184 Erie St., transacts a lucrative and thriving trade in the above mentioned articles, his annual sales ranging from $10,000 to $20,000. This business was founded by Mr. Cozens on a comparatively small scale at No. 148 Superior St. in 1872. He subsequently removed to St. Clair St. and again to Water St. before taking possession of his present quarters, where his grounds and buildings have a frontage of 60 feet and a depth of 120 feet, with all the facilities for transacting the various operations incident to this branch of business. He keeps one horse and dray and furnishes employment to five assistants. He ships to all sections of the Union and his trade is constantly increasing. Mr. Cozens is a native of this state and was born in Stark County in 1839. Previous to embarking in his present enterprise he traveled for other parties in various capacities, and was at one time agent for the American Hotel in this city. His varied business experience and ample facilities qualifies him for the large transactions in which he is engaged.

W. BREED & SON,

PROPRIETORS EXCELSIOR BAKERY AND DEALERS IN GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS, NO. 152 WASHINGTON ST.

The Excelsior Bakery, in connection with the grocery and provision business, conducted at No. 152 Washington St. by Messrs. W. Breed & Son, was originally established four years ago by Mr. H. W. Breed, who conducted the business until March, 1880, when the firm name and style became as at present. The premises occupied are in the two story brick building at the above location, the front portion being occupied as salesroom and the rear for the bakery department. One entire side of the salesroom is devoted to the display of an admirably selected stock of fine family groceries and provisions, teas, coffees, spices, canned goods, foreign and domestic fruits, notions, tobacco, cigars, etc., and the opposite side to the sale of choice fresh bread, pies, cakes, crackers, confectionery, etc. A specialty of this house is manufacturing fancy cakes for parties, festivals, weddings and family use, in which line they are not surpassed by any of their contemporaries. Mr. William Breed is a native of Massillon, O., and was born in 1826. He has resided in Toledo since 1852, and was for about 16 years associated with his brother, Mr. Henry Breed, in the ship chandlery business, under the style of H. & W. Breed. He was subsequently a member of the firm of Poe & Breed, in the wooden and willow ware trade. His son, Mr. H. W. Breed, was also born at Massillon, in 1849, and removed to this city with his parents when quite young. Previous to embarking in his present enterprise he was associated for seven years with the firm of Poe & Breed in the capacity of traveling salesman, in which he gained a practical experience, which cannot fail to be of value in his future business career.

M. B. O'NEILL,

GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS, No. 105
SOUTH ST. CLAIR ST.

Among the important industrial and commercial enterprises which contribute to the standing and progressive spirit of Toledo is its extensive grocery and provision trade. In a sketch of the enterprising houses engaged in this business, that of M. B. O'Neill is fully deserving of liberal mention. This enterprise was founded over a quarter of a century ago by Mr. James O'Neill who was one of the oldest settlers in the city. He commenced business at No. 32 South St. Clair St. and was succeeded by Mr. M. B. O'Neill, who successfully conducted the business up to the time of his death, which sad event occurred August 5, 1881. Since then Mrs. M. B. O'Neill has had the management of the large and growing trade, under the direction of Mr. John Dillon, and with the assistance of the requisite number of employes she has maintained the established trade of this house. In December, 1881, the establishment was removed to the present convenient location, where it occupies a two story brick building, 20x55 feet in size, while the stock will be found full and complete. The store room is neatly and finely arranged and the large and varied stock carried comprises a full assortment of the leading brands of flour, feed, staple and fancy groceries, smoked and salt meats, provisions generally, including canned goods, confectioneries, notions, etc. This establishment can always guarantee excellence of country produce and most reasonable rates. The excellent location makes this house a desirable one for boat supplies. The sample room contains choice wines, liquors, beer, etc. Besides the grocery business, Mrs. O'Neill owns a fine two story frame house adjoining the store which is used as a residence, also 80x70 feet at the old stand with buildings. Mr. John Dillon who is at present acting as administrator for the affairs, is a native of Ireland and came to this country in 1851. He is a practical miller and controlled a large flouring and grist mill in Cincinnati, O., for several years. He was elected sheriff of Brown County, this state, in 1870 and held this position for two terms with general popular favor. He came to this city in August last, since which time he has had the general direction of the business operations of this house. It is in contemplation at no distant day to erect a large and perfectly equipped flouring mill upon the premises adjoining the store, the eligible location of which will largely conduce to the commercial prosperity of this house.

J. G. VOLLMAYER,

DEALER IN FRESH, SALT AND SMOKED
MEATS, No. 233 ST. CLAIR ST.

As a very important branch of the commercial interests of Toledo the daily meat markets are entitled to a large share of consideration, in which connection it would be impossible to overlook the house of Mr. J. G. Vollmayer, occupying as it does perhaps, a conspicuous position on St. Clair St. His business was established in 1877 and he occupies a fine brick building 18x80 feet in dimensions. It is fitted up with a fine marble counter and first class refrigerator for preserving meats fresh and sweet during the warm weather, and all the modern conveniences and appliances conducive to perfect success in his particular line of business. His neat and commodious room is always well and fully stocked with fresh, salt and smoked meats, poultry, sausages of all kinds, and patrons are assured that everything is the best the market affords. Mr. Vollmayer was born in this city in 1854. He keeps a fine delivery wagon for the accommodation of patrons and for the requirements of the business, and enjoys a fair and profitable trade.

A. BURGER,

DRUGGIST, No. 336 ADAMS ST.

The well known drug and prescription store of Mr. A. Burger at No. 336 Adams St., corner of Franklin Ave., was established about eight years ago and purchased by the present proprietor in 1877 and has gained an enviable reputation with the medical fraternity and residents of this section of the city for the uniform reliability of its medicines and the general excellence of the various articles carried in stock, consisting of the purest drugs and chemicals, standard proprietary medicines, toilet articles, perfumery, fancy goods, wines and liquors for medicinal purposes, fine tobacco, cigars, etc., while one of Tuft's fine soda fountains is kept for supplying this delicious beverage during the warm weather. The sales room, which is 18x50 feet in dimensions, is handsomely finished and presents a neat and attractive appearance. Special attention is devoted to the preparation of physicians' prescriptions by careful and experienced pharmacists, and only the better grades of articles find place on the shelves and counters. Mr. A. Burger is a native of Germany where he was born in 1851, coming to this country in 1873 and to this city in 1874. He acquired

AN OLD CITIZEN GONE.

Death of Mr. Henry Breed.

A report was circulated on the streets yesterday about noon that Mr. Henry Breed a well known business man and a member of the firm of H. & C. W. Breed, wholesale fish dealers, had committed suicide. The report of his death was true, but that he committed suicide had no foundation. An investigation of the case showed that for several years Mr. Breed had been suffering with severe pains in his body, and to ease these has resorted to the common method of taking morphine. Saturday he took a dose but by mistake or over anxiety to quiet the pain took too much with fatal results. Drs. Bond and Collamore were called to attend the patient but when they arrived he was beyond all help being thoroughly under the influence of the drug.

All day Saturday Mr. Breed appeared to be in his usual health and was in attendance at the Republican Convention. There he met many of his friends and talked about matters in general the same as usual. His death was a great surprise and is deeply regretted by his friends.

Mr. Breed is well-known to all the old inhabitants of the City and commanded the respect of every one who knew him. A leading citizen remarked to day that he had known Mr. Breed for a period covering more than 35 years, had done business with him frequently, and could say without hesitation that a more honest or purer man than Henry Breed could not be found. He was a charitable man, and gave with unstinted hand to the unfortunate according to his means. There are those who will drop a silent tear for Mr. Breed when he is carried to his last resting place—deserving poor who have asked not in vain when gaunt hunger entered their homes.

Mr. Breed kept store on the old packet dock in 1848, near where the Burnett House now stands. He supplied stores of all kinds to vessels and did a very large and prosperous business. In after years, he was engaged in the pork packing business with Kelsey and Strong. He subsequently went to Illinois and purchased grain, after which he entered the fish trade in which he was engaged at the time of his death.

PERFECTED PRELIMINARIES.

Ready for the Fall Campaign—The Republican County Ticket.

The Republican County Convention concluded its labors Saturday evening, too late for a complete report in the BLADE of that day. To resume, where "the closing of the forms" made it necessary to halt:

Gen. George E. Welles placed in nomination for the position of County Clerk, John P. Bronson, F. M. Heath, of Whitehouse, seconded the nomination. Mr. B. T. Geer, of Swanton, nominated R. C. Quiggle. J. D. Ford seconded the last nomination in a
