

Suspects Off On Wrong Foot In Attempted Theft Of Shoes

Patrolmen Called By Witnesses Arrest Pair With Too Many Pairs

Two men were charged with the burglary of Teman's Shoe Store, 810 Monroe St minutes after they allegedly left the store at 4.45 a m. yesterday.

Patrolmen Norman Klinck and William Stoner said they received a call that a window had been broken in the store and that two men had been sighted running away.

On 11th Street, they saw two men coming through a vacant lot with their arms full of shoes.

Bond of $2,500. was fixed in municipal court this morning by Judge George N Kiroff. Accused are James L Jackson, 18, RD 3, Holland, O., and Henry A. King, 19, 2241 Jerome St