He was the Father of John F Daly Patlm.

One day he acted on a tip bright Friday Morning January 19 1917 he arrested the Mysterious prowler that called himself the Speder. Every home he had burglarized he would write his name as Spider on the wall or table clothe. After eluding the police for months ,He confessed to Juvenile Judge O'Brien)'Donnell on Friday after noon that he and two other Companion Spiders prowled more than 150 Homes in the West End since Dec 1 1916. The Spider was Richard Carleton of 1253 Fernwood ave and he was 16 yrs old and a pupil in the Lincoln Ave School. The other two Spiders were Helmith Behrens 17 yrs and Irving Frye 17 yr old.

They were tried in Juvenile Court and it was taken under the advisement of the court and that was the last of that case.

The only loss to the people was the goodies from the ice-boxes.

FALLS AGAINST CURB, DIES FROM INJURIES

Unconscious since Saturday night, when he was picked up at St. Clair and Lafayette streets by Patrolman Daly and Motor Cops Mead and Salhoff, Henry Glendenning, 40, of 613 South St. Clair street, died at the Robinwood hospital Sunday morning.

Coroner Henzler's theory is that the man fell against the curb stone and fractured his skull. When the officers found him Glendenning was lying against the curb. The body was turned over to Undertaker Feese by the coroner.

'WORKS' FOR WIFE BEATER

Because his wife would not give him money, John Adovasio, 23, beat her Tuesday in a resort at 610 Lafayette st. Adovasio was arrested by Detectives Wolch and Daly. In police court, Wednesday morning, he was sentenced to three months in the workhouse.

LONG AGO

WHAT A difference in styles, as well as personnel, a quarter of a century makes. Members of the Toledo detective bureau posed for this picture June 10, 1922. The cap for formal wear by well-dressed sleuth was on its way out, while the old bowler of the teen decade had disappeared. Left to right, in the top row, are Joseph Fruchey, now head of the bureau; Roy Havens, retired; Michael Rowan, Ernest Raitz, Joseph Swiatecki, Capt. William Carroll (deceased), William Julert (deceased), Fred Langhoff, Bernard Cummings, retired; James Ford, retired; John Mullen, Michael Daly (deceased). Center row, Capt.
