EDWARD E. HARRIS

Born: 1876
Hired: 1907 Regular Patrolman
Promoted: 1912 Det - Sergeant
Promoted: 1914 Det - Lieutenant

Edward E. Harris was an actor by nature and possessed a remarkable baritone voice that carried him to the New York Broadway heights over 1/3 of a century ago. He was born in Washington D.C.. He joined the John W. Ishams Octoroons early in the 90's.

Edward moved from the minor parts in Broadway to the starring roles in many all black musical comedies and light operas, which included such hits as, The Smart Set, The Oriental Americans, and The Black Daddy Troubadors. In 1904 he was at the height of his career with the famous Williams and Walker show, when, one night his amazing baritone voice cracked and his days as a show man and big star was over.

Edward then came to Toledo to become a waiter in the Hanners Chop House at St. Clair street and Jackson Ave.. This was a famous gathering place for all politicians, athletes, and other professional men. Mayor Brand Whitlock and J.J. Mooney, Toledo's first Safety Director, appointed him a policeman.

Edward died April 18, 1949 of a heart attack in his home. Services were held April 21, 1949 at St. Benedict Church, 1717 Washington St. at 9:00 A.M.. He is buried in Forest Cemetery.
