

BOTH SHOW LICENSE TO PROVE RIGHTS

When Abraham Merstafa, Detroit, a soldier, met the woman he says he married on March 10 walking down Jackson-st on Tuesday with another man, he appealed to Patrolman Brennan.

Patrolman Brennan arrested the woman and her companion. They gave their names as Mabel and Steve Keyreff and said they are man and wife. The man exhibited a marriage license to prove it. The woman denied being the soldier's wife.

The soldier also exhibited a marriage certificate to prove that the woman was his wife. The three are being held at Central Station.

EX-POLICE SERGEANT ON TRIAL

William Tibbles, former police sergeant, went on trial on Tuesday before Judge Brough on a charge of buying, receiving and concealing stolen property. When arraigned Tibbles pleaded not guilty.

Tibbles is charged with having in his possession liquor stolen from the Clair Liquor Co., 619 N. St. Clair-st. The liquor is said to have been stolen by three men.

KICKS IN GLASS; ROBS 12 STORES

A burglar robbed a dozen stores in West Toledo on Wednesday night and Thursday morning. The last straw broke his back and he was captured by Police Sergeant Ansell and Patrolman Ruble.

The man paid visits to the following stores: Kirchenbauer Decorating Co., Masonic Temple Building; L. K. Kugler, bakery, 725 Phillips-av., Standard Gas Station, Phillips and Sylvania-av.; R. W. Showler, men's furnishing store, 1013 Sylvania-av.; Mrs. F. McCollum, grocery, 652 Sylvania-av.; Phillips Avenue Garage, 632 Phillips-av., Marleau Hardware Co., 412 Phillips-av. A. A. Stimpfle, grocery, 336 Phillips-av.; John Ulmer & Co., grocery, 1011 Sylvania-av.; Clifford Vermass, Burnham and Sylvania avenues; West Toledo Publishing Co., 612 Phillips-av., Stiles Pharmacy, 706 Phillips-av.

A man giving the name of John Palmer, 24, of Brooklyn, is held for investigation. Cigars, cigarets, trinkets and other merchandise valued at $50 are held as evidence. In each case the robber kicked in the glass in the front doors. The robber skipped Kutz's soft drink store, where $360 was in a safe.

WOMAN IS HELD IN SHOOTING

John Van Doesburg Is In Hospital; Will Die

Because no one has been found who heard the revolver shot which probably will result in the death of John Van Doesburg, 45, of 1724 Summit-st, police are considering a possible theory that the man may have been a victim of a mysterious attack. Van Doesburg was found unconscious in the bathroom of his home at 1724 Summit shortly before 7 o'clock on Friday morning by his wife, Elsie, 35, who has sued for the annulment of their common law marriage.

CANNOT LIVE.

Mrs. Van Doesburg is held for investigation at Central Police Station. Van Doesburg is at Toledo Hospital where surgeons say he can live but a few hours.

The weapon with which Van Doesburg is believed to have been shot was found by Patrolmen Brice and Chudzinski. The officers found the revolver, under the bath tub, covered with blood. Brice and Chudzinski took the woman to Central Station.

According to Mrs. Van Doesburg, a noise in the bathroom was heard about 5 o'clock on Friday morning.

THOUGHT HIM DRUNK.

"I thought my husband was drunk and I thought nothing of it," she told the police. "Shortly before 7 o'clock I went to the bathroom door and saw John lying on the floor, covered with blood.

"I ran to other rooms and notified roomers in our house that my husband had shot himself. They called the police. That's all I know of it."

Other roomers in the house asserted that altho the bathroom is only a few feet away from the other rooms, they heard no shot in

ASKS FOR DIVORCE.

Mrs. Van Doesburg, according to her attorney, Esther A. [redacted] has sued her husband for divorce two weeks ago. She charged him with gross neglect of duty, extreme cruelty and failure to support either herself or him.

"I had to keep roomers to support us," Mrs. Van Doesburg told Inspector Delehaunty.

Police also believe Van Doesburg may have attempted suicide because his wife was suing for divorce. According to the wife he has been drinking heavily since he was served with divorce papers 10 days ago.

POLICE OUT ON A MAN HUNT

Search For Two Men Who Attempted Big Robbery

A small army of armed policemen, detectives and farmers headed by Police Inspector Leutz, is searching the railroad yards and vicinity about two miles beyond the city limits at Air Line Junction for two men who staged a thrilling attempted holdup with all the well known movie scenes.

Every man is armed with a revolver or shotgun, some with both, with orders to shoot on sight if the two holdup men are located and try to escape.

HAD DRAWN $2000.

The holdup was staged on Saturday morning in the railroad yards near the Federal Creosote plant, when Superintendent J. E. Rogge, 35, returned to the plant with $2000 he had just drawn for payroll purposes.

Rogge, with Charles Oliver, 40, of 2143 Gana-st, a guard, went to the Second National Bank at 9 on Saturday morning and drew the money. They drove back to the plant. As they entered the plant yards on a road that passes over about 30 railroad tracks, two men, about 25 years old and 5 feet 5 inches tall entered the road from behind a box car.

ONE WAS BLANK.

They yelled, "Throw up your hands and hand over that coin." Rogge was going slow because of the rough road and when he failed to stop one of the robbers pointed a revolver at him and pulled the trigger. Rogge said it must have been a blank cartridge as the gun was pointed directly at his face, but he was not hit.

"I thought of blanks immediately and figured on my one chance to escape and saving the money," Rogge said. "That was that the other cartridges contained blanks. I stepped on the 'gas' and the auto jumped ahead. Both men then opened fire and riddled the auto with bullets. The other cartridges did not contain blanks. Both Oliver and I ducked down and managed to escape without being hit. We were just lucky, for there are about 10 bullet holes in the back of the auto."

FARMER SAW ALL.

Charles Grallinski, 30, a farmer living near the Creosote plant was working in a field nearby. He saw the attempted holdup. He ran to his farmhouse, where he called to his father, George Grallinski. Both men, armed with shotguns and R. L. Wallace, 38, a Creosote plant employe, gave chase. They chased the robbers, altho far behind them, until they disappeared toward Dorr-st.

They said they saw the robbers trade caps while running down the railroad tracks.

In the meantime police had been notified and headed by Inspector Leutz auto loads of police and detectives, all armed for a big "man hunt," were sent to the scene. The men at the different sub-stations were given their orders and a systematic "man hunt" was staged.

A "REPORTED" ROBBERY.

The attempted holdup was staged a few minutes after police were notified that a lone bandit slugged and "stuck up" payroll men on Central-av. The first report said a baker was slugged and robbed of $300. Police were sent out. This is what really happened:

When police arrived they found that Louis Gilbert, 17, of 827 Baker-st, and James Carrico, 19, of 322 15th-st, two messengers at the Overland, were sent to a Central-av bank to cash $260 worth of checks. They told police that when they left the bank with the money a holdup man knocked them down and robbed them of the cash. Police took the two youths to Central Station where detectives questioned their story.

ROBBERS GET $1000.

The attempted holdup at the Creosote plant and the "reported holdup" on Central-av, followed about 36 hours after two auto bandits slugged and robbed Michael and Joe Urbanski, Lagrange-st saloonkeepers at Lagrange-st and E. Central-av of $1000 on Friday afternoon.

Police have made one arrest as results of the Urbanski holdup. The man is being held as a suspect.

The Urbanski brothers were returning from the bank with $1000 to cash pay checks on Saturday when two bandits rushed from a doorway and demanded the money.

USED BLACK JACK.

One of the bandits struck Joseph Urbanski over the head with a black-jack, knocking him to the pavement. The other bandit covered the brother with a revolver. The men then relieved Michael Urbanski of the money and dashed away in an auto.

Police were notified and made a thoro search of the West-end. The police would not state just what connection the one arrest had with the robbery. It is believed that someone familiar with the routine of the saloonkeepers planned the job.

Joseph Urbanski is in his home with two scalp wounds, received when he was struck with the black-jack.

WOUND FATAL TO PRISONER

James Bell, 27, a negro prisoner at the Workhouse, was shot and fatally wounded by L. A. Duncan, a guard, when Bell and eight companions threatened to mutiny at the dinner table in the Workhouse on Sunday noon.

Bell was shot thru the right lung. He died in St. Vincent's Hospital on Monday. The colored man refused to obey an order to leave food on the dinner table.

On his way to the cell he is said to have made remarks and started toward Duncan. Eight other men started with him. Duncan fired two shots in the air. Bell continued to advance. Duncan then shot twice more, one of the bullets entering his right lung, the other his left arm.

'J. B. CORN' GASPS HIS LAST

15 Saloons Reap Harvest On Last Day

John Barleycorn breathed his last in Toledo and in Ohio at midnight on Monday. Promptly at 12 o'clock the 15 Toledo saloons that had paid the $305 necessary to operate on Monday, were closed. Most of them reaped a harvest during the day.

And with the passing of the saloon came announcement from Columbus that the county and state licensing boards have been ruled out of business leaving dry Ohio without any other method of enforcement than the regularly constituted authorities of the state and various communities in the state—the police, sheriffs, constables or their deputies.

OLD JOHN DIES HARD.

The Lucas County Liquor Licensing Board urges all saloonists to move their stocks of liquors from their present saloon locations as soon as possible and, if they plan to ship their stocks to wet states, such as New York, Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Illinois, to do so immediately, altho there is no law prohibiting the storage of liquor in Ohio at this time.

But J. B. died hard. Auction sales were held in many of the places, and as closing time neared, there was a marked drop in the high prices that have prevailed for weeks, dealers being anxious to dispose of all surplus stocks.

GOVERNMENT IN ON CLEAN-UP.

In some of the places there were criers who called loudly their sale of liquors. Handbills announcing the sale of $70,000 worth of liquor from one establishment near Cherry-st were passed about town early in the evening, and there was a rush for this place. Some cases of Scotch whisky sold for as low as $15 and one five-gallon jug of choice brand went for $12.

Even the government was in on the final clean-up. Marshal Hugh Bartley auctioned 70 cases of whisky for a total of $2154.99 from his office in the Federal Building.

With the passing of J. B. and beer the near-beer parlor has come into being. In fact, a majority of the old saloons have decided to remain open, selling near-beer and soft drinks, to hold their leases in the hope that next November will see the return of light wines and beer, at least.

The prohibition law put 421 Lucas-co dealers out of business. This includes nine wholesale dealers, and 412 saloons, divided as follows: Toledo, 394 saloons; Maumee, five; Adams-tp, four; Jerusalem-tp, two; Oregon-tp, four, and Washington-tp, four.

About 25 liquor dealers quit business between Nov. 21, last year and May, due to unprofitable business on account of war conditions, high war taxes and inability to pay the $1000 Aiken tax.

FREDRICKSBURG, TEX.—FREDRICKSBURG voters want no more drouth than nature provided. Only 23 out of 2200 voted for prohibition.

VICTIM IDENTIFIES HIS ASSAILANTS

An hour after John Gorski, 1709 Belmont-av reported to police that he had been beaten and robbed of $28 by four men while he was returning from work on Tuesday. Patrolmen Benner and Richter arrested four men on suspicion at Superior and Adams-st.

Gorski was called and, police say, identified the quartet as his assailants out of 20 prisoners. The men described themselves as Phil Smith, 33, Detroit; Max Katz, 20, of 2808 Chestnut; Harry Harris, 20, of 2057 North 12th-st. and Charles Sholky, 20, of 513 North-st.

They are charged with assault and robbery.

SPECIAL SQUAD PICKS UP 75

One Man Found Naked In Downtown Alley

Complaints that many men with "hangovers" were lying around in downtown alleys on Monday night caused police to send out a special squad to gather them in.

About 75, most of whom were just beginning to recover from their Saturday night drinking, were picked up.

They were found in all conditions of dress and undress.

One man Bruno Sadekl, Detroit, a returned soldier, was found lying naked in an alley near Erie-st by Patrolman Stone. Sadekl was unable to say how he lost his clothes.

STEAL 200 HALF PINTS OF WHISKY

Two hundred half-pint bottles of whisky were stolen from a barn in the 3100 block N. St. Johns on Tuesday night. The whisky was the property of Marcel Metz, saloon-keeper at 501 Cherry st.

Detectives Hovey and McCloskey on Wednesday recovered 42 of 49 cases of whisky stolen from P. Jacobs, 2022 N 14th-st several days ago.

POLICEMAN SAYS HE IS GUILTY

Stewart Chilcote, one of three policemen indicted in connection with theft of a quantity of whisky valued at $5000 from Meyer Cohen, pleaded guilty in Common Pleas Court on Tuesday. He will be sentenced by Judge Ritchie on Thursday. Patrolmen H. E. Runyan and Otto Selke, and Clifford Dotson, a taxi driver, indicted in the same connection have entered pleas of not guilty.

CIVILIANS WILL PATROL CITY

Committee Of Citizens Is Organized

To patrol the city at night, a volunteer police force of 300 men have been organized and sworn in.

This force will be increased to 500 men. The city has been divided into 16 districts. It is planned to place 30 men in each of the districts. The citizen-police will work in autos, one shift from 8 p. m. to midnight and another from midnight to 4 a. m.

It is planned to have seven autos in each district with the present force.

A meeting of the organization will be held on next Saturday at which time it is hoped enough volunteers will have offered their services to increase the force to 500.

The citizen-police will simply do the work that has been done by the regular night police force.

CONVICT DRIVER OF BOOZE THEFT

Three men, including two city patrolmen, will be sentenced by Common Pleas Judge Ritchie on Monday, for the theft of $5000 worth of whisky from Meyer Cohen several weeks ago.

A jury on Thursday found Harley Webb, taxi driver, guilty after 10 minutes consideration. Ex-Patrolmen Stewart Chilcote and Otto Selke have pleaded guilty.

Ex-Patrolman H. E. Runyan, who was arrested in connection with the theft, has disappeared. His $1000 bond has been forfeited and a capias issued for his arrest.

The two men who have pleaded guilty and Webb, who was found guilty, are held in the County Jail for sentence on Monday.

—Peter Zawodini, police alarm operator, says it seems funny these days not to receive calls giving the location of a noisy, or helpless or fighting drunken man.

—The crew of a New York Central locomotive takes train of passenger coaches to Detroit in the morning. Then the crew runs the locomotive back to Toledo alone.

—Police Chief Henry Herbert is a man about town these days. He personally directs the patrolmen stationed at the various plants all over the city and he has to cover lots of ground.

TRIES TO HOLD UP AUTO; IS SLAIN

Youth Shot To Death On The Matzinger-Rd

COMPANION IS TAKEN

Occupants Of Machine Fire At Bandit

Walter Jankowski.

Farmers passing thru a growth of weeds on the Matzinger-rd, near Stiekney-av, on Friday morning found the body of Walter Jankowski, 19, of 3021 Chestnut-st.

Police and Coroner Hartung say he was shot to death when, with two other youths, he attempted to hold up an auto on Thursday night.

Who fired the shots is not known to the police.

One of the youths, Florian Zeintek, 17, of 1054 Belmont-av, was arrested on Friday night in connection with Jankowski's death. He admitted being with Jankowski when the shooting occurred, police say.

HELD UP SEVERAL AUTOS.

According to Zeintek, he, Jankowski, and a youth whose name is known to police, but who has not yet been arrested, held up several autos on the Matzinger-rd within the last several weeks.

Zeintek says that on Wednesday night they held up an auto and robbed the occupants, a man and woman, of $11, and, encouraged by their success, attempted another holdup on Thursday night.

Shortly before midnight, Zeintek says, they tried to halt an auto which was being driven away from the city. Standing in the light of the oncoming car, they drew their revolvers and ordered the driver to halt.

TWO SHOTS FROM MACHINE.

Two shots were fired from the machine and Jankowski staggered out of the road. Zeintek says he and the other youth became frightened and ran toward the city, leaving their comrade.

Jankowski's body was taken by police to Gaslorowski's undertaking rooms. The youth had been shot thru the wrist and abdomen.

Jankowski was identified by his father, Anthony Jankowski. Besides his father, the youth left a mother, several sisters and two brothers.

WOMAN IDENTIFIES YOUTH.

Zeintek was arrested by Detective Connors, Martin, Palecki and Dobnecki. His story of a holdup on Wednesday night was confirmed on Saturday when a woman appeared at the County Jail, where he is being held, and identified him as one of three bandits who held her up.

Police, while searching for the occupants of the car from which Jankowski was shot, are not hopeful that they will be found. It is not thought they knew their shots had been effective.

EX-POLICEMEN ARE SENT TO PEN

Indeterminate sentences in the Ohio Pen were imposed on Otto Selke and Stewart Chilcote, former Toledo patrolmen, and Harley Webb, taxi manager, by Common Pleas Judge Ritchie on Saturday.

Webb was found guilty this week and Selke and Chilcote pleaded guilty to the charge of robbery in connection with the theft of $100 worth of whisky, owned by Meyer Cohen, from a Summit-st store room.

Selke's attorney, in a plea for clemency, said there was a technical question of Selke's innocence. But the court said he was more willing to believe Selke's open statement in court that he was guilty than to consider a technical point.

"This is no place for technicalities," Judge Ritchie said. He added:

"I am satisfied that had the affair been profitable all would have shared in the profits. As it did not end that way, all must share in the loss.

"I am satisfied that there is much more good than bad in the lives of Selke and Chilcote. But the court, with sympathy for all, will perform its duty without fear of anyone."

Former Patrolman H. E. Runyan, also implicated in the robbery, is a fugitive from justice, having jumped his bond. Clifford Dotson, who drove Webb's taxi in hauling the whisky to a hiding place, pleaded guilty, and now awaits sentence.

Good Ol' Summer Weather's Here

Flaming summer time is here at last, laying down a heat barrage that is disagreeable to pass thru. Memorial day saw the mercury rise to 84 degrees, the highest mark of the season, and the boys who, on other Memorial days gathered in the cool of the bar drinking gin bucks and fizzes, had to be content on Friday to sip chocolate sody water and leming pop.

There was a vast crowd of summer garbed folks and a number of persons along the lake front enjoyed a swim. Edward Kelsey, manager of Toledo Beach, estimated the crowd at the opening of the resort on Friday at close to 5000.

Kelsey says that 100 persons took the plunge into the waters at the beach. The dance hall did a rushing business. The beach will formally open on June 23, but will be open on Sundays from now on.

Saturday started out like Sunday, intended to wreak further vengeance. The temperature was 69 above at 7 a. m. and at 8 a. m. had climbed to 72. At 12:30, it was 82 above.

CHILD IS BADLY BITTEN

Mary Russo, 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Russo, 211 Illinois-st, was attacked by a dog, believed to be mad, on Sunday evening. The child was bitten about the face and hands.

Following its attack on the girl, the beast is said to have bitten several dogs in the neighborhood. It was shot by Patrolman William Reed.

The girl was taken to the Municipal Hospital, where her wounds were treated to prevent hydrophobia. The dog's head will be examined.

200 CITIZEN POLICE ARE SWORN IN

An additional 200 citizens who have volunteered to do police duty were sworn in by Mayor Schreiber at Central Police Station on Saturday.

The city has been divided into 16 districts. These districts will be covered by the citizen police in autos. Shifts will work from 8 p. m. to midnight and from midnight to 4 a. m. daily.

POLICEMAN SHOT IN THE ARM

Mike Russell Wounded In Taking Prisoner

In rushing a narrow stairway at 122 12th-st where Tilden J. Bailey, 42, a roomer at the place, is said to have taken refuge on Sunday afternoon, with the threat that he would shoot anyone who followed, Patrolman Mike Russel was shot thru the right forearm. His wound is not considered serious.

Bailey is said to have flashed a revolver in the Arbogast Tire and Supply Co., Jefferson and Erie streets, a short time before the shooting. The proprietor called the police and Bailey fled to his rooming house.

Patrolmen Russel, Reilly, Raab and Schultz followed him and found him standing at the head of a stairway with a .38 caliber revolver. The landlady, Mrs. Marie Mansfield, attempted to take the gun from him but was thrown down the stairs and slightly injured.

The patrolmen then rushed the man on the stairs. Bailey fired, wounding Russel, and engaged in a fist battle with the other policemen, who captured him after a short fight. He is being held on a charge of shooting with intent to kill. Patrolman Russel was able to go to his home.

CAR KILLS WIFE OF PATROLMAN

Mrs. W. A. Rogers Is Crushed By Interurban

Mrs. W. A. Rogers, 36, of 618 Lorain-st., wife of Patrolman W. A. Rogers, was killed by a Painesville-Cleveland interurban car at Willoughby, near Cleveland, on Monday afternoon while her husband, parents and grandmother looked on helplessly.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Powers of 630 Buffalo-st. and the grandmother, Mrs. Albert Powers, 83, were en route by auto to Conneaut Lake, Pa. Near Willoughby they stopped their machine and the two men in the party crossed the car tracks to a well, intending to fill a thermos bottle.

A short time later, Mrs. Rogers left the machine and followed them, stepping onto the tracks before an approaching car. Their attention drawn by warning whistle blasts, the other members of party saw the car strike Mrs. Rogers, carry her body for several hundred feet on the fender and then crush it under the trucks.

The grandmother, Mrs. Powers, is in a serious condition from the shock.

HAAS BELIEVED A BOOTLEGGER

Man Killed By Citizen
Police Had Record

UNDER INDICTMENT

Suspected Of Shooting At Michigan Cop

Walter Haas, 26, under indictment for whisky stealing and who was shot and killed by Leroy E. Eastman, an emergency policeman, early on Wednesday morning during a battle between three special officers of the citizen police force and 20 or 30 gangsters, believed by police officials to be the same man who a few hours before abandoned an auto containing 360 quarts of whisky on the Temperance-rd after shooting twice at the Michigan state constabulary.

Haas was killed on Ontario-st, near Adams-st. The shooting occurred shortly before 4 a. m. on Wednesday.

BULLET THRU HAT.

Haas is said to have been on the Temperance-rd shortly after midnight when he was hemmed in between two autos of the Michigan state constabulary under Lieutenant James Bruce. Leaping from his auto he escaped thru an orchard after firing two shots at Bruce, one of the bullets taking off the lieutenant's hat. The abandoned Cadillac auto bore a Michigan license, 43471. The above number was taken out for an Overland car by Sidney J. Annis of 130 Whitewood-av, Detroit according to the Michigan license record.

"I wasn't positive I shot him," Eastman said Wednesday from his bed, where he is suffering from cuts and bruises inflicted by a score of gangsters, of whom Haas is said by police to have been a member.

SEEKING INFORMATION.

Haas was shot by Eastman after Joe Galloway, 22, of the citizen police and a special officer for the Toledo Auto Club, had attempted to quiz 20 or 25 men in a soft drink saloon operated by H. B. (Babe) Johnson of 721 Adams-st.

Eastman and David Robison, a real estate dealer and one of Eastman's police partners, were standing on the outside of the saloon questioning three men and a woman about the occupants of an auto, which they had pursued down Madison-av from Collingwood-av.

MISSED GALLOWAY.

Satisfied that the auto was not a stolen car, Robison and Eastman prepared to go back to their district. They missed Galloway. A moment later Galloway ran out of the front door of the saloon with 20 or 25 men in pursuit. The pursuers commenced slugging the three emergency police, it is claimed.

Fighting and slugging in return, the three officers succeeded in retreating down Ontario-st nearly to Madison-av, where Haas leaped upon Eastman, throwing him to the pavement, he says. With Haas on his back and four men cuffing and kicking him, Eastman then reached for his revolver and fired two shots into the pavement. Another cuff and a kick from Haas and Eastman shot again. The bullet struck Haas in the chest.

TAKE EASTMAN'S GUN.

At this period Autopatrolmen Rossman and Wilson, who were on a call in the neighborhood, heard the shots and hurried to the scene of the shooting where they saw Eastman, revolver in hand, holding seven or eight of his assailants at bay.

Not knowing who he was, the policemen took the revolver from Eastman and placed him under arrest.

Haas was taken to Mercy Hospital, where he died a few minutes later.

The assailants, seeing Eastman unarmed, attacked him once more. Rossman and Wilson rescued him. In the meantime autoloads of police had hurried to Madison-av, and Ontario-st, where a hurryup call for police had been sent in by someone.

ORDERS ARRESTS.

When told of the affair at his home shortly after the shooting Police Chief Herbert ordered everyone in Johnson's place arrested.

These were held for investigation by police: G. Gordon, 25, all over; G. G. Wood, 34, all over; Earl Redards, 30, 132 10th-st; Harold Johnards, 30, 132 10th-st; Harold Johnson, of 715 Monroe-st. H. L. Mack, 32, 10th-st; Frank Cotter, 34, of 330 Michigan-st; Charles Schultz, 24, of 144 Peak-st; Tom Miller, 26, of 703 Adams-st; William Baumstein, of 441 Erie-st, John Mastella, of 729 15th-st, and Agnes Knight and Minnie Bernstein, both 25 years old, of Detroit.

SEVERELY BEATEN.

Both Galloway and Robison received severe beatings. Robison has a deep gash on his head. According to Eastman they were patrolling in the neighborhood of Collingwood-av and Madison-av when they noticed an auto speeding down Madison-av. They were told to slacken their speed. Instead the auto sped on faster. Eastman, Robison and Galloway pursued.

At Madison-av and Ontario-st the auto turned towards Adams-st. The officers continued to Erie-st and then to Adams-st, where they saw an auto standing in the street and three men and a woman talking. Eastman and Robison began questioning the quartet, while Galloway, unnoticed by them, had gone into the saloon.

FOUR HELD ON A SERIOUS CHARGE

Ten of eleven men held in Central Police Station for investigation in the fight which resulted in the fatal shooting of Walter Haas, 26, a bootlegger, on Wednesday morning by a member of the citizens police, will be taken into Police Court on Saturday on various charges.

H. B. Johnson, 30, will be charged with keeping a disorderly house at 721 Adams-st. Four are charged with assault with intent to kill. These are the men identified by the special policemen as some of the men who assaulted them on Wednesday morning. C. C. Gordon still is held on suspicion. The rest will be prosecuted as vagrants.

FIVE IDENTIFIED BY POLICE

MAYOR COMMENDS EASTMAN

"I take this opportunity of publicly expressing my admiration for the nerve of a citizen policeman, who shot down a rowdy on Wednesday morning. I have not seen this man, but I want him to know that I am grateful to him for what he did," said Mayor Cornell Schreiber before the Ohio State Bankers' Association in the Lasalle & Koch dining room on Wednesday evening.

"This spirit, that knows or respects no law, hates the flag, believes in no God, thrives on anarchy and hatred and lawlessness, will not be tolerated in Toledo. They will be met with the business end of an armored tank. This is no time to let up. We Toledoans must work together as we did during the war."

Because three of Mayor Schreiber's emergency policemen want what they want when they want it, many exciting things have happened in Toledo in the last 48 hours.

The policemen's activity shortly before 4 o'clock on Wednesday morning brought these bits of excitement:

HAS POLICE RECORD.

Walter Haas, 36, of 2238 Madison-av, with a police and bootlegging record, was shot and killed by Emergency Policeman Leroy E. Eastman on Ontario-st, shortly before 4 a. m. on Wednesday when he knocked down the policeman and was beating him.

Police discovered that Haas, at the time of his death, was under indictment for the theft of a large quantity of booze. He also was arrested at one time for the theft of an auto.

A story came to The News-Bee from a correspondent at Monroe, Mich., that a lone bootlegger had abandoned a Cadillac auto with Michigan license, 43477. The auto contained whisky valued at about $2000. The story told of the chase by Michigan constabulary, led by Lieutenant James Bruce, in which Lieutenant Bruce's hat was shot off by the fleeing bootlegger.

ASKED TO VIEW BODY.

The News-Bee learned over the phone that the auto license 43477 was issued to a man named Walter Haas and for a Cadillac auto. Lieutenant Bruce was reached on the phone by The News-Bee and told of the killing of Haas in Toledo and asked to come to the city and look at the body.

Lieutenant Bruce went to Roy Browning's undertaking establishment with a News-Bee reporter and identified Haas as the same man who early on Wednesday morning had abandoned the booze auto and shot off the constabulary officer's hat.

Lieutenant Bruce said that Haas was a prominent figure on the booze

BIG FORCE WILL GUARD CITY

Mayor Calls Meeting Of Citizen Police Officers

WANTS 3000 TO ACT

Schreiber Talks To Hun- dreds At Central Station

A meeting of all the officers connected with the citizen police has been called by Mayor Schreiber and Safety Director Wall for Thursday night at 8 at Central Police Station.

At this meeting, to which all men who served as officers in the body from June to August are invited, the details of policing the city will be taken up, and the organization started at the meeting of the volunteer patrolmen themselves on Tuesday night, will be perfected.

AWAIT CHIEF'S RETURN.

No police captain as yet has been detailed to have charge of the volunteer force, Mayor Schreiber said on Wednesday. The return of Police Chief Henry Herbert to the city is awaited.

"Lots of the volunteer force are already on duty," Mayor Schreiber said on Wednesday, "and more are coming."

On Wednesday at Mayor Schreiber's office scores of recruits called to sign cards and to volunteer to serve as members of the force. There seems to be a general public desire among hundreds of individuals to aid the City Administration and the Police Department in this work.

WITHOUT COMPENSATION.

Applicants in accepting appointment to the volunteer force agree to serve without compensation whenever called upon by the proper authorities and to honestly, faithfully and impartially perform the duties of patrolmen. The mayor hopes to increase the volunteer force from 1200 to 3000.

"Toledo is a clean, pure and safe place to live in and it is now up to the citizenship of Toledo to keep it that way. And the city administration is back of you in every lawful thing you do."

Those were the final words of Mayor Schreiber at Central Police Station on Tuesday night when he talked to more than 400 of Toledo's citizens who met with the mayor and Safety Director Wall to reorganize the citizen police force.

"What we want is a safe and decent town to live in," the mayor said, "and with the handicap of a small police force, it is up to the citizenship of Toledo to make it that way."

FOR GOOD OF THE CITY.

The police gymnasium on the fourth floor of the Police Station was overcrowded with men from all walks of life eager to join hands in the one big cause.

The meeting was called by the mayor in order to determine which members of the old organization of citizen police are ready to again offer their services without compensation.

About 170 men who recently formed part of the mayor's emergency force attended the meeting to again offer their services. There were over 100 new men to sign the volunteer cards. These men will be investigated and sworn in for service. The old members were told to go on duty at once, but that they would be notified by their captains when their active service will start.

WORLD-WIDE UNREST.

The mayor gave the world-wide unrest as the cause for the sudden recalling of the citizen force. He said:

"The world is in the path of what seems to be a crime wave. Toledo is no different than any other town or city. The time to deal with such a turmoil is to stop it before it starts. That is why I have called on you gentlemen.

"You are the men who can prevent Toledo becoming one of the crime wave victims. With only 300 men on the Toledo police force to patrol 100 square miles containing about 300,000 persons and with the patrolmen working in three shifts, it is necessary for each patrolman to travel a beat covering from one to three miles or more.

"This is the reason that I have called on men like you, men in all walks of life, with just one big English service to render, to protect the good name of our grand city of Toledo.

WITH FULL AUTHORITY.

There is nothing more wonderful than a citizenship that stands together. Police power, supreme power, safety and comfort mean something to the city. The citizenship of Toledo can furnish those.

"The most arrests do not necessarily make the best officers. The best officers are those who preserve peace and order. You are clothed with the full authority of the law and are at liberty to use this authority whenever you find that you cannot preserve peace and order without forceful means.

"Forget personal grievances when on this job. It is not a job to settle a grievance. Personalities must be eliminated. Do not use your authority to settle either your or some other person's grievance."

POLICE STOP DANCING IN CABARETS

"Lid" Nailed On Tighter By Police Chief Herbert

COP KNOCKED DOWN

Saloonkeeper Points Gun At Patrolman

Dancing by patrons in all cabarets in Toledo was stopped by police mandate on Wednesday.

In an order to patrolmen and detectives, Police Chief Herbert charged them with seeing that there is no dancing on the floor of any cabaret.

MUST STAY ON STAGE.

This order includes the Metropolitan cabaret on St. Clair-st, Benny Goldstein's Canton-st cabaret, Phil Markowitz's cabaret at Short and Erie streets, and Hermann's cabaret on Lafayette-st.

Performers in cabarets will be required to stay away from the tables and off the floor, Police Chief Herbert said. All singing and dancing stunts must be on the stages provided for them, he said.

Police have instructions to visit these cabarets at regular intervals to see that the order is carried out.

LATEST STEP IN CLEANING.

The order is the latest step taken by Police Chief Herbert in the campaign to clean up Toledo which started on Saturday when Mayor Schrelber issued a proclamation that all crooks and undesirables must be driven from the city.

The cleanup efforts on Tuesday night resulted in the arrest of two men charged with unlawful sales of whisky.

Patrolmen Grove and Bokam, in plain clothes, visited the place of A. J. Drew, Washington and Ontario streets, which has long been a police watch place for undesirable characters.

POINTED GUN. Grove and Bokam say they had no difficulty in buying two glasses of whisky, but the trouble started when they attempted to get out of the place with some of the whisky as evidence.

Grove drank his glass of booze to learn if it was whisky. "All right," he said to Bokam.

Carrying a glass of the liquor in

STATEWIDE HUNT FOR BANDITS ON

Police In All Neighboring Cities Aid In Search

MAY BE HIDING HERE

Authorities Believe Robbers Are Still In Toledo

Police in cities and towns within a 100-mile radius of Toledo had descriptions on Wednesday of the bandits who, on Tuesday morning made an unsuccessful attempt to hold up the Commercial Savings & Trust Co. branch, 810 W. Central-av.

These descriptions tally exactly with the ones of the bandits who shot George Hillman, driver of the Pinkerton Tobacco Co pay auto, and robbed the paymaster of $4030 on Saturday morning. Detectives believe them to be the same.

A report early on Tuesday afternoon that a Cadillac auto, similar to the one used by the robbers, ran down and badly injured John Rudolph, 14, of 1449 Michigan-st, at Ontario and Bush streets, and then speeded away, led detectives to believe that the bank robbers were still in Toledo.

TRAVELING 50 MILES AN HOUR

POLICE PUT END TO DANCING

Continued From Page One.

his hand, Bokam started for the door.

Drew is said to have covered him with a pistol.

"Drink that or I'll blow your head off," Drew is alleged to have said to the policeman.

KNOCKED TO FLOOR.

At that moment a patron stepped behind Bokam and struck him on the back of the head, knocking him to the floor and spilling the whisky.

Detective Langendorf, a member of the "vice squad," who had been waiting outside, came to the rescue. Drew surrendered when he saw Langendorf's pistol pointed at him.

Drew was charged with unlawfully selling whisky. John Martin, 41, who is said to have been the man who struck Bokam, was arrested, charged with assaulting the policeman.

CASES CONTINUED.

In Police Court, on Wednesday, both cases were continued for one week.

The second arrest for unlawful sales of booze was made at 10 p. m. when William Cook, 32, of 1950 Clark-st was arrested by "vice squad." His case is continued in Police Court. Cook is a bartender in a saloon at 721 Adams-st.

At 10:25 p. m. police arrested four men as "suspicious persons." Harry Allen, 43, 502 Superior-st, was arrested as a "suspicious person." Police say they have evidence that Allen has been used as a "lookout" for certain Superior-st resorts.

Michael Michalak, 21, who was arrested several days ago in connection with the investigation of the Pinkerton Tobacco Co. holdup, has been charged with driving an auto while he was intoxicated.

BULLET HOLES IN CAR.

Michalak was arrested when police saw him driving an auto that had two bullet holes in the rear of it. Witnesses said the bandit car connected with the Pinkerton holdup had been hit twice with bullets.

It was learned that Michalak's car was in a garage at the time of the holdup. Michalak, however, was intoxicated when arrested, police say.

Peto Wisnewski, 19, arrested in connection with the attempted hold-up of the Splendid restaurant, Adams and 14th streets, has been released. Restaurant men were unable to identify him.

CATCH MAN IN ALLEY.

While on the lookout for suspicious characters on Tuesday night, Detectives Henehan and Raltz and Patrolman Hall saw a man running down an alley between Huron and Erie streets, near Orange-st.

They caught him. The suspect gave his name as Henry Peffenbaugh, 19, of 1246 South-st. Peffenbaugh is suspected of robbing the clothing store of Sam Thal, 712 1/2 Cherry-st. Several hats, caps and a suit of clothes were found near the place.

BANDITS TAKEN IN HOT CHASE

Robbers' Auto Wrecked Speeding To Escape

ONE MAKES GETAWAY

Three Are Caught, One Being Shot In Shoulder

Within an hour after four men slugged and attempted to rob Morris Blumberg in his clothing store and pawnshop at 133 St. Clair-st, on Friday morning, police caught sight of the bandit car, and after a thrilling chase, three of the men were captured.

Once captured, the men spoke freely of the holdup and readily admitted their part in the attempted robbery, police say. They gave their names as Harry Thomas, 20 a chauffeur, Monroe-st; Frank Murphy, 26, of 1818 Adams-st, and Frank J. Tishler, 25, Paris Hotel.

EXCITING RACE.

With the report that the bandit car had speeded out over the Cherry-st bridge, Police Chief Herbert dispatched a carload of officers to watch the Consaul-st bridge and search the East Side.

Coming over the Consaul bridge, the officers sighted the bandit car at Ash-st and the Consaul bridge most at the same instant. The bandits say the police auto.

BANDIT CAR WRECKED.

Turning his machine so quickly it almost upset, the bandit driver fled cityward, bearing toward Michigan-st. The car raced up Michigan-st and, in attempting to turn toward Champlain-st, swerved against the curb at Michigan and Magnolia streets, and crashed against a tree.

Thomas, with a bullet wound in his left shoulder, never attempted to leave the demolished car. Later he told police that he had been forced to drive the car and had been shot by one of the bandits.

Police are inclined to believe a bullet from Blumberg's gun struck him.

COVERS COP WITH GUN.

The other two men ran toward the Auto-Lite plant on Champlain-st, but on seeing policemen at the factory, turned back. Patrolman Miller, off duty, gave chase to Tishler, who covered the officer with a gun. Miller hesitated, then took up the chase again and caught Tishler in a yard.

One other man was captured soon after by Sergeant Ansell, Patrolmen Shaub, Sub-See and Honnessy, while on duty.

Three of the robbers walked into Blumberg's store on Friday morning, and with pedestrians only a few feet away, leaped upon Blumberg. One struck the merchant on the head with a blackjack.

BLUMBERG FIRES ON ROBBERS.

Blumberg whipped a .25 caliber automatic from his pocket as he fell to the floor. He shot six times at the men who fled upon sight. The gun.

Turn to Page 2, Col. 1.

As they leaped into the waiting auto they were chased by a crowd of nearly 150 people.

At the time of the attack the safe in the store was open and contained $150 in cash and $450 in Liberty bonds. In the show case were $8000 worth of diamonds.

HAD A "HARD HEAD."

"The only reason I escaped being killed, or at least knocked unconscious, was that my head is so hard," Blumberg told a News-Bee reporter. "When I was a boy, I used always to fight, bull-fashion, with my head. Other kids used to pound my skull with their fists, and I couldn't feel it.

"The blackjack was the same way. I felt that, all right, because it made a big cut and drew a large amount of blood. But even a blackjack couldn't get thru my skull."

MAN IS CAUGHT AFTER CHASE

Several Shots Fired In Auto Race Thru Streets

Between 30 and 40 policemen, led by Police Chief Herbert, and about 300 citizens took part in a thrilling auto chase on Friday morning. It started at Ontario and Bush streets and ended when a man was found hiding in the Libbey Glass Co. plant.

The chase started when policemen, searching for the fourth man in the St. Clair pawn shop holdup, saw a man run and jump into an auto at Ontario and Bush streets. The man in the auto speeded up and a chase between his machine and several police autos followed.

SEVERAL SHOTS FIRED.

The man ran his auto all over Lower Town, always being able to keep just out of reach of the policemen. Numerous shots were fired, many of the bullets entering the rear end of the auto.

As the police were about to catch up to the auto, the driver drove up the driveway to the Libbey Glass Co., and ran into the wall of a building.

He leaped out of the machine and entered the building. By this time every available auto policeman and many patrolmen and detectives were in the chase and about 300 citizens were on the scene.

A call for reserves was sent into Central Police Station and the plant, as well as the marsh nearby, was surrounded while many policemen, with drawn revolvers, searched the plant.

FOUND IN CAVE.

Patrolman Dear found a man hiding in a heating cave in the plant. The door to the cave was covered with a newspaper, which attracted Dear's attention.

While Detective McCloskey and Chief Herbert were taking the prisoner to Central Station, he was told that his partners were under arrest and had told everything.

He then confessed, according to the chief, that it was his auto he was driving, and that he had been driving it for a gang of tire thieves who had just stolen some tires from a Summit-st garage.

When informed that he was believed to be the fourth bandit in the pawnshop holdup, he said he wished he had known that previously, as he only ran away from the police because he thought they were after him for the tire thefts.

At Central Station he gave his name as Clarence Babcock, 4, of 71st Superior-st. He said that while he was standing by his auto he saw the "coppers" coming and thought they were after him.

HAND OF O'DWYER IS SEEN IN INDICTMENT OF SHERIFF MATHIAS

Well, bond for Sheriff John Mathias, has been furnished by two of his friends Coroner Walter Hartung, who "legally" served as sheriff over night, until Mathias appeared in court and had bond fixed, has been relieved of his "responsibilities" and has resumed the practice of medicine and assumed the regular duties of the coroner of Lucas-co.

Mathias was indicted on Thursday on charges of assault and battery and on a charge of having stolen property in his possession.

CORONER APPEARS.

Just a few minutes after the grand jury made its report, Coroner Hartung appeared in the clerk's offices and secured capases for the sheriff on the two charges. According to this procedure, it was the duty of the coroner to serve the papers on Mathias and keep him in custody until bail could be fixed.

Coroner Hartung located Mathias late on Thursday afternoon. Both men joked about the matter and as it was too late to arrange bail in court, it was the duty of the coroner to "keep the sheriff in safe custody."

Coroner Hartung and Sheriff Mathias walked over to the county jail and upon a gentleman's agreement the coroner left the jail instructing Mathias to meet him at nine o'clock on Friday morning.

BOND SET AT $1500.

B. J. Dalkowski, councilman from the Third Ward, and John Mlynarczyk, appeared before Judge Johnson with Mathias. Bond was set at $1500 on the charges. The men gave the bond jointly, and the matter was over.

Politicians see in the indictments another tack on the part of John O'Dwyer, Democratic boss, to "get" Mathias for bolting the organization.

Mathias said on Friday that the indictments returned are "mere hair-splitting technicalities" and that he would make the charges appear ridiculous, when the matters would be brought to trial.

NOT IN JAIL.

Mathias did not spend the night in jail. Technically of course Mathias was a prisoner. He met the coroner in his office in the Court house on Friday morning.

There was about a 50-50 split at the Courthouse on Friday in the feeling for and against O'Dwyer in his latest political move in causing the indictment of Sheriff Mathias.

Many prominent O'Dwyer enemies openly voiced O'Dwyer's latest move as "one of the lowest pieces of dirty politics ever pulled in Toledo or Lucas-co by a political boss."

"SHAME," COOPER SAYS.

There was nothing secret about County Auditor Gabe Cooper's statement in behalf of the sheriff. Cooper said:

"I have nothing to say about the sheriff, except that he is one of the best officials I ever knew. It is a shame that he should be subjected to such ridicule. You can tell the world that I'm for him because I believe he is honest and conscientious."

The anti-O'Dwyer men holding county offices say it is the same old O'Dwyer way of getting rid of officials who refuse to take their orders from O'Dwyer. One county official said: "That just shows what a fellow is subject to if he's sucker enough to tie up with a man like John O'Dwyer."

"CONSCIENCE" IS THE UNDOING OF TIRE ROBBERS' DRIVER

Frank Tishler (above).
Harry Thomas.

Clarence Babcock (above).
Frank Murphy.

It was a guilty conscience, police say, that brought about the arrest of Clarence Babcock, 47, who admitted to Chief Herbert that he had driven an auto for a band of auto tire thieves.

Patrolmen Ansell and Shaub, in a commandeered auto, bent on the capture of a fourth bandit, who had just held up and slugged Morris Blumberg in his pawnshop, 433 St. Clair-st, were directed to Ontario and Bush streets.

LED A MERRY CHASE.

Babcock saw them coming. Like a flash he was in his auto and driving away. The policemen gave chase. A patrol auto from East Side Station and numerous citizens joined.

Babcock led a merry chase that ended at the Libbey Glass Co. plant. One of the dozen shots fired by the policemen, tore a hole in the rear of the auto. A shot Babcock is said to have fired, struck the fender of the pursuing auto.

SMASHED MACHINE.

The fugitive drove his auto up the drive to the factory, smashing against the wall at the end of the drive. Then he fled thru the plant and hid in a "cave" used for baking glass. Police Chief Herbert led over a score of policemen thru the plant hunting for him. He was found by Patrolman Dear and dragged from the "cave."

Babcock made his second mistake on the way to Police Station.

"We have your buddies, so you might as well come clean," Herbert told him.

ONLY DRIVING FOR 'EM.

"I was just driving for them. They stole the tires from a Summit-st garage," Babcock said. Further questions convinced the police that Babcock had nothing to do with the hold-up, but was implicated in a tire theft.

The chase after Babcock and the chase after the four bandits, who held up Blumberg, sent police autos flashing all over the city, resulted in three exchanges of shots and two auto smashes.

Blumberg emptied a pistol at the bandits who tried to rob him.

Police Sergeant Ansell and Patrolman Shaub shot several times at the bandit auto, when they discovered it crossing the Consaul-st bridge. They pursued it to Michigan and Magnolia streets where the fugitive machine crashed into a telephone pole and was wrecked.

Harry Thomas, 20, the driver, weakened by a bullet wound in his left shoulder, where one of Blumberg's bullets had hit, had been unable to hold the auto steady. He was arrested on the spot by Ansell and Shaub.

ONE BANDIT ESCAPES.

Frank Murphy, 26, and Frank Tishler, 25, the other two men arrested, were caught by Patrolmen Miller, Sheodor and Hennessy. A fourth man escaped. He was chased thru the marsh near the Buckeye Brewing Co.'s place, but got away.

The three prisoners admitted the attempt to rob Blumberg, police say.

Witnesses of the holdup of the Pinkerton Tobacco Co. pay auto last week, when George Hillman, the driver, was shot and $4930 taken, and of the attempted holdup of the Overland branch of the Commercial Savings Bank, were called in an attempt to identify the men. They said the men now held were not among the bandits who shot Hillman and tried to hold up the bank.

In making one of the captures during the chase of the holdup men, Sergeant Ansell slipped from an auto and fell, straining one leg.

HELD TO GRAND JURY.

In Police Court on Saturday, Murphy, Thomas and Tishler were held to the grand jury on charges of assault with intent to rob and assault with intent to kill. Bail for Murphy and Tishler was set at $2500 each. Bail for Thomas, the driver, who claimed he had been hired to drive the auto and knew nothing about the planned robbery, was set at $1000 by Judge Young.

"LID" IS NAILED ON TIGHT

City Is Quiet After the Raids By Police

NO LIQUOR IS SOLD

Six Men Are Arrested As Suspicious Persons

"Quiet as a mouse" was Toledo on Friday night as a result of Mayor Schrelber's drastic cleanup campaign.

The usual number of detectives and 25 patrolmen in plain clothes visited all the cabarets, ex-saloons and other places, but nary a drink of liquor was being sold.

Not one arrest was made for illegal selling of booze, no one violated the midnight closing ordinance, and if there was any gambling going on, the officers could not find it.

Six men were arrested during the night. All are charged with suspicion and are being held for investigation.

WAITED IN HIDING.

Four men arrested when Detectives Connors, Martin, Quinn and Hovey raided a poolroom at 26 S. St. Clair-st on Thursday have been charged with receiving stolen property. They are said to have been concealing an auto, stolen several weeks ago from Detroit.

The detectives swooped down on the poolroom, arresting J. B. Martin, 48, the proprietor, and one other man. Then they concealed themselves and arrested every man who entered for half an hour.

ONLY ONE RELEASED.

Out of nine arrests made, only one man has been released. He is George Perry. He convinced the police he knew nothing of the stolen auto.

Martin, Tom Noonan, 28, Tom Rizzo, 21, and Sam Liles, 40, all colored, are held for the auto deal. Mike Stefano, 29, another man arrested in the raid, is held for the theft of an auto in Lorain, O. The others are still being held for further investigation.

15 HELD WITHOUT BAIL.

Out of the total arrests made in the first week after Mayor Schrelber ordered his cleanup, 15 men are being held, without bail, for investigation. Two fugitives from other cities also are being held.

Joe Sullivan, also known as Chuck Flynn, 23; James Burns, 27; Thomas Maroney, 26, and Ray Taylor, 25, who were arrested on Thursday, when Detectives Quinn, Culver and Langendorf and Sergeant Jennings raided flats at 547 and 545 Erie-st, have been charged with being suspicious persons. These men have been released on bail and will be tried in Police Court on Oct. 22.

AWAITING TRIAL.

Richard Patterson, 47, colored, who is said to have conducted gambling rooms at 706 Washington-st, will be tried in Police Court on Oct. 21. Nine colored men, arrested in his place for gambling, split a fine of $50 and costs on Friday.

George Myers, 43, arrested for selling liquor when police raided a saloon at Orange and St. Clair streets, will be tried on Oct. 22.

Unable to secure other charges against Ed Waters, 47, and Pat Noonan, 33, held for investigation, police put a charge of vagrancy against the two men. In Police Court on Friday, they were sentenced to five days in the Workhouse.

SENTENCES SUSPENDED.

Ray Gibson, 32, of 1601 Mott-av, arrested for the theft of coal from the Pennsylvania R. R. yards was fined $15 and costs by Judge Young.

Judge Young suspended a fine of $10 and costs against Sam Bloom, 24, of Columbus, who was tried as a suspicious person. He also suspended a 60-day Workhouse sentence against Norman (Red) Lewis, 24. Lewis has a record of 24 arrests. James Mitchell, 26, charged with being a suspicious person, received a $15 suspended fine from Judge Young.

Thursday Evening, Dec. 4, 1919

C. E. ROGERSToledo Councilman, Taken in Big Raid Wednesday Afternoon.*Being Brought to Lancaster to Answer Charge of Burglarizing
Pleasantville Bank, February 10th.

Deputy Sheriff E. S. Reese and City Patrolman George Neeley are on their way from Toledo to Lancaster in the automobile of Charles Hengst with C. E. Rogers, alias Pie Rogers, Toledo Councilman, in custody, charged with having burglarized the Pleasantville bank on the night of Feb. 10th, last, when bonds of the estimated value of $20,000 were stolen, including $5,000 worth of school board bonds.

The affidavit was filed with Mayor Mayer by Prosecuting Attorney J. H. Fultz on Nov. 15.

Prosecuting Attorney Fultz has been working on the case for the last 30 days assisting U. S. Postoffice Inspector, E. D. Beatty of Cincinnati, who has been at the head of the work in running down the crook taken in the big raid at Toledo Wednesday by

Healthy Children, Happy and Full of Joyful Life

Do this for the kiddies if you want to keep their tender little bowels open and stop them from getting fretful and feverish.

Get an inexpensive package of good, old-fashioned vegetable at your druggist's today. Brew a cup of delicious tea and give to the children as directed.

CELERY KING

You'll like it yourself too for it not only purifies the blood, but keeps stomach, liver and bowels in first-class shape.

Drink a cup every other night for three weeks and your whole being will be filled with the joy of living. It's simply splendid.

the federal officers in which Rogers was arrested.

Deputy Sheriff Reese and City Patrolman Neeley were in on the joy when the raid was made, carrying out the instructions of Prosecutor Fultz.

The officers are expected to arrive here with their prisoner some time early this evening.

Mr. Fultz will ask that Roger's bond will be fixed at at least $15,000

The Big Raid.

More than 200 arrests were made and several thousands dollars worth of narcotics and alleged stolen property was seized in a raid conducted by 75 federal officers at Toledo Wednesday.

One of the men arrested is C. E. Rogers, a city councilman. He is charged with conducting a fence for stolen property.

Following the raid it was announced that bank safety boxes of men known to be prominent criminals, were attached through an order of United States district court.

As fast as the suspects were brought in they were questioned and finger prints were taken of them. They were then locked up.

The raiders came from all over the country. Sixteen places were visited, the majority of them being saloons and cheap hotels. Large quantities of liquor were seized also.

The investigation which led to the arrests today started more than a month ago when it became known that Toledo was the headquarters of a band of interstate shipment thieves drug sellers and safe blowers.

Detroit, Dec. 3.—More than 150 prisoners were rounded up here tonight by police and federal officers, many of them said to be known to the authorities as expert yeggmen and pickpockets. Stolen property valued at many thousands of dollars was recovered. Among those arrested was a Detroit attorney, whose name was withheld pending further investigation.

The raids were understood to have been decided on by federal and local authorities as a means of checking the wave of crime that has swept the city and environs for several weeks. All the prisoners were registered on charges of violating the United States criminal code.

Deputy Sheriff Reese, Mr. Hengst and Officer Neely arrived home about noon and landed their prisoner in the county jail.

It was quite an exciting experience. Deputy Reese expected to get a fourth officer in Columbus, but Chief Carter would not allow any of his men to go and said that an officer ought to be arrested in trying to railroad a prisoner out of another county.

Mr. Reese, however, knew his business as well as the great chief of Columbus and proceeded on his way with the force that he had taken from Lancaster.

When they arrived in Toledo about seventy-five officers received instructions in the Federal building and proceeded to make a number of raids. They divided up in groups and Reese and Neeley were with the squad that raided the cigar store and pool room of Rogers. They had instructions to first seize the telephone so that information could not be given to any pals on the outside or at other places where raids were planned.

The officers had a little trouble with the bartender who attempted to destroy something behind the bar and partially succeeded in doing so, but he was soon quieted by Mr. Reese who threatened to give him a tap on the head. Reese told Rogers that he had a warrant for his arrest.

"All right," said Rogers, "read it."

Deputy Reese then read the warrant and took him down to where he had stationed Hengst with his automobile. When they passed the police station and the Federal building, Rogers inquired if they were not going to stop there, and being answered in the negative inquired:

"Where are you taking me?"

"I'm taking you out of town and then we will go to the good old town of Lancaster where you will be given a fair and honest trial"

POLICE SEARCH FOR FUGITIVES

Point Place Cottages Are Scouted For Jailbreakers

Police, with Sheriff John Mathias and several deputies, searched parts of lower Point Place unsuccessfully on Saturday for D. E. West, convicted murderer, and three men who escaped from the Lucas County Jail on Christmas morning.

A tip was received that the escaped men were hiding in a cottage on the north shore of the Ottawa River, near the mouth of the stream. Two taxicabs, loaded with police armed with shotguns, and another auto loaded with attaches of the sheriff's office, made the trip to the Point and searched a number of cottages. Fishermen in the neighborhood said they had seen no strangers in the vicinity.

Because the neighborhood visited was in the state of Michigan, Sheriff John Mathias secured the services of a deputy sheriff from Monroe to assist in the search.
