Bay View Range House - Outside

Sergeant Samuel Vogel outside the Bay View Range House, sometime in the 1940s.

The shield that hung above the doorway to the range at least into the 1960s is now gone. Hopefully, time will bring it back to its rightful home.

The range house in the 1960s, before it fell into critical disrepair.

The Decay of an Era, Abandoned and in Disrepair

The photos below are before the roof was replaced. The range is in desperate need of revival.
