

DECLARES COP SAID HE COULD SPEED

That several patrolmen had told him he could drive 24 miles an hour in the 20-mile speed zone without being arrested was claimed by H. Newton, 803 Madison-av, arrested for speeding 24 miles on Adams-st, on trial before Municipal Judge Young on Wednesday morning.

Newton was arrested by Motorcycle Patrolman Hartung on April 6. Judge Young fined Newton $10 and costs and suspended the fine. Young said he would notify Police Chief Jennings of the case.

C. E. Wolfe, 1625 Nicholas Building, was fined $10 and costs and ordered not to drive on the streets for 30 days. E. Elmers, 409 Valentine Building, and F. J. Manor, 852 Woodland-av, were given similar sentences. The three were arrested by Motorcycle Patrolman Bohnsack.

MOTHER OF DEAD BABE SOUGHT

Infant Found Buried In Pile Of Sand

Police are searching for the mother of a baby boy found partially buried in a pile of sand and rubbish in an alley between St. Louis-st and Arden place on Wednesday night.

The baby was found by W. A. White, 436 Arden place, when he drove into his garage in the alley about midnight. One small foot, sticking out of the pile of sand, caused White to investigate. A piece of woman's clothing was found nearby.

Detectives Carroll and Timiney said the baby had been born near the alley, and that the mother had apparently been frightened away by the approach of White's auto. The infant weighed about nine pounds. The body was taken to Abele & Sons undertaking parlors. Coroner Henzler will hold an inquest on Thursday.

WOMEN OPPOSE ARRESTS

Two Men Held After Chase Thru Streets

Members of the police vice squad who raced to the Palm Hotel, Cherry and Erie streets, early on Thursday to arrest two men, reported to be attempting to break into the place, found opposition from women inmates of the hotel, according to police reports.

A woman's voice notified police headquarters over the telephone that two men had broken a window. When Patrolmen Havens and Rowan and members of the vice squad arrived, the men are said to have been crawling in the window.

According to police, four women from the hotel ran out to the sidewalk and offered objections to the arrest. During the alleged interference the men escaped and fled. They were captured after a chase of two blocks. The prisoners gave their names as H. Ewing, 23, of 213 Ontario-st. and R. Fiske, 22, of 315 Ohio-av. They are held for investigation.

None of the women was arrested.

WONDER SPRING

Patrolman Joe pigs and two she decided not to f

Recently Joe
with another po
a five-acre plot 50-50 basis. As Joe decided that farm. Now the

IF HE HAS FEVER?

Fredericks has two ep for sale. He has arm this summer.

made an agreement
lice officer to work in Millwood on a spring approached he didn't want to animals are for sale.