

Study In Facial Expressions

SHOOTING by rookie patrolmen at the police pistol range brought this interesting study in expression on faces of a group of visiting high school students. The students, drawn from each class of each Toledo high school, visited the pistol range and the city sewage treatment works at Bay View Park as part of a program for local government study. It was the third such tour arranged by the Publicity and Efficiency Commission.